A Discontented Mind.

We will find plenty of things to be fretted about if we permit that habit to get formed in us. But the word tells us "to be content with such things as ye have." But be diligent in business, fervent in the spirit, serving the Lord, and in obeying these commands by temperate lives, we will have all the necessary things for our comfort. We will some day be ashamed to think how we have been fretted by petty discomfort and how much time we spent in talking about our food. What a letter Paul might have written of his suffering, and he was a constant sufferer. He said that he counted that all gain to win Christ. He was chained to a Roman soldier, confined in an old barrack, and in danger of death any moment. He bore the cold and heat of the day, a Divine hero; he was well aware of his reward and yet that was not the object that prompted his diligence in faithfully endeavoring to establish the truth that Jesus Christ was the Savior of mankind. That he might be able to show something of God's great love for fallen humanity; that he would even suffer in their stead, that we might be reconciled unto God.

O, the glorious message he had been deemed worthy to be entrusted with. O, let us all remember that God has entrusted us with something as the affairs of His kingdom, and may we realize as Paul did "Woe is me if I do not preach the gospel according to our several abilities." No more is required of me than I have strength and grace to perform, O, let us ever be true and loyal to our King. Paul was a brave gentleman of Christ, a Divine hero.

Let us learn from him the art of living; that we may be content with what God provides. "The most powerful stimulants the world has ever known are eternal truths." It plies us with "Divine inspiration." It deals with the greatest themes, God and Christ. These are positive setting forth of the truths. That some souls will be ultimately shut out from the presence of the great God, the Creator of mankind, and the Creator of this great universe. Some will avail themselves of this great privilege of coming to Him. May we be among that number who will hear, "well done." Enter into my rest. "A contented mind is a continual feast." Happy are they who possess.—Word & Works.

Thoughts by the Wayside.

Some of us had a friend who was near and dear to us, a friend whom we could trust, whose presence cheered us; now they are no longer by our side and we are left to mourn. Whether are they gone? From the unrelenting lips of the voiceless dead there comes no word. As the twilight fades and the shadows deepen, the natural is merged in the supernatural; there is no line of demarcation, but beyond the valley of the shadow of death lies "Beautiful land," where the white winged dove has folded her wings. We sometimes wonder why God has so long permitted evil to exist in this world—perhaps for some wise purpose unknown to us. A perfect theodicy is impossible to man. Jesus Christ came into the world that they might have life and have it more abundantly. Life from the dead through him who both abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. Beyond the verge of time and space hope has borne her nest. We shall meet in the ages to come.—Ex.

A $10,000 Hereford Bull.

The famous Hereford bull Dale has been sold by the Wabash Stock Farm company of Wabash, Ind., Jesse C. Adams of Moweaqua, Ill. for $10,000. This is the highest price ever paid for a Hereford bull.

The Riverside Hereford company gave $7,500 for imp. Diplomat. This was the highest price paid for a Hereford until a few days ago, when Clem Graves of Bunker Hill, Ind., sold Dale to the Wabash Stock Farm company for $8,000. On Jan. 7, in Chicago, Mr. Hoxie broke this record by giving Thomas Clark of Illinois $10,000 for his bull Perfection, a son of Dale.

Mr. Adams now owns two of the highest priced Hereford cattle in the world. Last winter at a sale in the Kansas City Fine Stock pavilion he paid $2,700 for a cow belonging to Clem Graves. This is still the greatest amount ever brought by a cow of this breed. All the animals have been seen in the show ring in Kansas City. Dale was the sweetestest bull of the show in 1890, and perfection won first in 1900.

The Value of Good Roads.

Good roads, like good streets, make habitation along them most desirable. They economize time and force in transportation of products, reduce wear and tear on horses, harness and vehicles and enhance the market value of real estate. They raise the value of farm lands and farm products and tend to beautify the country through which they pass. They facilitate rural mail delivery and are a potent aid to education, religion and sociability. Charles Sumner once said, "The road and the schoolmaster are the two most important agents in advancing civilization."

The Madison Advertiser says: "A correspondent in the Eatonton Messenger tells of a Putnam county lady whose father and mother are invalids, and who cultivates the farm and supports the family, working eighteen acres in corn and cotton last year, realizing two bales of cotton, plenty of corn, wheat 600 pounds of pork, and other produce, is out of debt, plenty to go on, and is nicely advanced for the new crop. The necessity which urges this angel of energy to such exertion is to be deplored, but it is a glad some hereditary that produces the beautiful nobility of such womanhood in a mould that revives faith in the virtues of women who have tinged American with its most striking grandeur, in their times of emergency. We commend the example this Putnam heroine to mankind who discount their hopes in the pawnshop of advance supplies."

Quintana Advertiser: Perhaps one of the largest sales of meat ever made by one farmer to one merchant at one time in this city was sold this morning by Colonel E. J. Young to Messrs. Townsend & Thomas. The meat sold was the product of seventy-five hogs, all of which were young and would have grown larger. The net weight of the meat alone from these seventy-five hogs was 8,303 pounds, the lot bringing between $800 and $900. Mr. Young has killed 102 head so far this season and after selling of the above lot has a surplus of several thousand pounds on hand, besides a large quantity of lard and other hog products. Brooks county is the place to raise hogs, all is needed is more farmers like Mr. Young.

Not Ended.

"Ah," sighed the would-be snicker, "there is where all my troubles come to an end!" and he spang into the deep waters of the bay. He was mistaken.

For the preserver hit him in the neck and he saw a million stars. The deckhand made a pass at him with a boathook and ripped a small-sized crevasse from his waistband to his collarbone. Then they hauled him in, thumped him, doped him, rolled him over a barrel for half an hour and hustled him to the harbor hospital, after which he was arrested, fined $10 and roasted by the judge and kicked along the corridor toward the door. A dog bit him as he departed.

"Alas!" he sobbed, "it is more trouble to die than to live!" So he didn't.

Which teaches us, my children, that the Pat Crowe style of self-effacement is much to be preferred, besides being much cleaner and more respectable, and making no muss and scandal among our neighbors.—San Francisco Bulletin.

Tells Its Own Story.

A merchant who had two stores in small villages tried an experiment. He put a bargain counter in each store containing the same articles at exactly the same price. In the newspapers of one village he advertised his special counter. In the other village he did not advertise, and sold goods amounting to $684. In the store in the village where he did advertise he sold goods amounting to $1,728. In commenting on the result of his experiment that merchant says: "People who got the advertisement would pass by one of my stores and drive miles to the other."—Gadsden Times.

His Proposal.

Of course he was an ingenious man and she was an unsuspecting damsel.

"Let us," he said, "pretend that you are Porto Rico and I am the United States."

"Oh, I don't like these geographical games," she returned. "They require so much thinking."

"But this doesn't require any at all,"—he insisted.

"How do you play it?" she asked.

"Why, I simply annex you," he answered.

"It's not such a bad game," she admitted after a while. —Chicago Post.

A Proposition.

Client—Your fee is exorbitant. It didn't take you a day to do the work.

Lawyer—It is my regular fee. I am not charging you for time but for the cost of my education.

Client—Well, give me a receipt for the cost of your education, so the next fellow won't have to pay for it too.—Tit-Bits.

A drunkard's widow in South Dakota has been given $1,800 damages against a saloon keeper who sold liquor to her husband after she had warned him not to do so. The husband committed suicide, and the court holds the saloon keeper responsible.

The season for hunting partridges closes on the 15th inst.

Politics are getting almost to a boiling heat in Georgia now.

Hon. Polk Thompson, of Banks county was killed a few days ago by a cave on his farm.

Secretary Root is proceeding to cut down the force of troops in the Philippines to 32,000 men.

Earl Hester, a negro boy, was sentenced last week in Gainesville to 12 months in the chain gang by Judge Pryor for stealing a green ox hide. Pretty dear hide.

The little four-year old child of Jabe Waters, of Gainesville, Ga., came near dying from the effects of morphine poison the other night by swallowing laudanum.

The committee has been at a loss to know how to punish the two fighting senators. The best and severest punishment to each would be to let them get together and fight it out.

Quite a number of ladies in an Illinois town recently contracted small pox by kissing the bride at a wedding. Very true, that every sweet has its bitter, more especially on this occasion.

The candidates for state school commissioner are: Dr. Mark Johnson, of Milledgeville; Hon. G. R. Glenn, the present incumbent; W. B. Merrett, of Lowndes county; and Rev. A. J. Beck, of DeKalb county.

Candidates, both large and small—we mean large and small offices—if you want the people to know that you are in the field you must send in your announcements. People are not going to vote for you unless you ask them to.

Blockaders had better suspend business now. The federal prison in Atlanta is receiving guests and Judge Newman will extend the time of many of those found guilty and put them in the penitentiary where they can work.

W. M. Shelton and C. J. Anderson both of Dawson county, went down to Gainesville last week and retailed liquor out right in open day light. It is supposed from the empty vessels they had when arrested that they carried some 25 or 30 gallons. Com. Gaston put them under a bond of $800 each and later on they may be given accommodations at the new federal prison in Atlanta.

The small pox is still spreading in Hall county. Dr. R. A. Smith, the city physician, had 30 cases last week. There was only one case in Gainesville up to last Friday. The disease was caused by a juror breaking out with it during court week at Gainesville. There are a number of cases in Lumpkin county now, so we are informed by Dr. Head, and it is not likely that the Superior Court of this county will be held in April.

There are four candidates in the field for the office of state school commissioner—Glenn, Merrett, Johnson and Beck. The first is the present school commissioner who works more to the interest of the book trusts than he does for the welfare of patrons of public schools. He opposes a uniform system of text books. Now let the people of Lumpkin county look to their interest by voting for a man who will save them money—a man who favors a uniform system of school books for Georgia. That man is Mr. Beck. We are told that he is a preacher, a county school commissioner and the principal of a high school or college. He ought to be a good man and one who understands the wants of the people best. Now let us help him because we are all directly interested in this important matter.

Cherokee county has been thoroughly raided by the three gubernatorial candidates.

Walter McCleskey, a former student of the N. G. A. College, died in Cherokee county last week.

The March term of the federal court convenes next Monday with a list of more than 300 criminal cases on the docket.

On the 28th from 35 ult. to 75 miners were killed by a snow slide near Telluride, Colorado, called Liberty Bell mine.

Senator Hanna is quoted as saying that capital and labor are twins. This may be but the former gets nearly all the milk.

The democratic primaries will likely be held some time in June. The democratic executive committee will not be called together before April.

Blue Ridge is also troubled with the small pox. In fact it looks like this disease is all over the country, and it will take a long time to stamp it out.

The Atlanta depot problem seems to be a hard nut to crack, so tough that it may not be built under the act providing for it at the last session of the legislature.

The editor of the Acworth Post is about to adopt a new plan among its delinquent subscribers, by traveling over the county and eating with them. The first round will do him because his diet will be so light that the sun will almost shine through him when he ends his journey.

Jerry Hicks, Grover Gibbs and Mrs. Gibbs, witnesses against Sallie Hicks, charged with murder in Banks county, have been put in jail at that place so they will be convenient when the trial comes off on the third Monday in this month. These witnesses were unable to make bond is why they were imprisoned.

Congressman Tate has introduced a bill providing that all state colleges and all colleges established under the land grant act shall be depositories for public documents and the superintendent of documents shall distribute to each of such colleges copies of all documents and publications delivered to him for distribution to other depositories.

The unprecedented rain of last week did great damage throughout Georgia and adjoining states. In Serrell county a cyclone killed one man. The Ocmulgee river was higher than ever known before. On Thursday night of the storm a train on the Southern railway rushed into a swollen stream near Zeletta, Ga., killing engineer Allen Matthews, baggage master J. H. Hill, Isaac McDowell, of Columbus, and mail clerk L. G. Murray, of Atlanta. Hon. O. B. Stevens, commissioner of agriculture, was among the injured. The trestle was about 50 feet above the raging waters. The track gave way and the engine, mail and baggage car and the second class car plunged into the swollen water, leaving the first class coach, filled with many passengers, upon the unimpaired part of the trestle.

Col. Estill is conducting what might be termed a "nospeaking" style of campaign. He is going out into the country and is meeting all the voters. He has heart to heart talks with the boys. He says he thinks the other candidates are good men, and if they were elected governor they would make good officials, but he thinks he would make a good governor himself and is asking for votes. Col. Estill is a much better politician than the people gave him credit for being despite the fact that Mr. Guerry says he will carry only Chatham and one other county. Colonel Estill figured in politics considerably during the reconstruction period, and although he looks "innocent" he knows a thing or two. His style of campaign is causing a great deal of comment in Atlanta, and the politicians are in doubt as to whether it is a good style or a bad one.—Atlanta Journal.

Gov. Candler is confined to his bed with a severe attack of the grip.

Three preachers had their pockets picked while at church in Atlanta the other day.

Charles Broadway Rous, the blind millionaire of New York, died in that city last Monday. He carried on one of the biggest businesses in New York. Some of the merchants of Dahlonega have been purchasing goods from his house for years.

Martin M. Barnes, a blockader of Gilmer county, who had just served out a sentence in Fulton county, returned home the other day and went to town and got on a big spree. Upon reaching home he raised a quarrel with his wife and procured a gun to shoot her. His son Gus interfered and took the gun away from his father. The old man got another gun and as the son ran off he filled him full of shot, and then to avoid arrest took some strychnine and fell dead on the floor in the presence of the officers and his family.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

Mining Notes.

There is nothing new in mining circles this week except that the repairs on Crown Mountain pump were finished and the pump started on Monday, working better than at any time heretofore. The reservoir was soon filled with water and by the night following the hands had enough soft ore to start the four Huntings running on full time and quite likely there is a supply of hard ore for the stamp mill by this time to keep it moving. No more trouble is expected with the pump as the broken wheels have been replaced with steel ones. Mr. Bryman, manager of the Consolidated, is down at the Hand every day giving it his personal attention, assisted by a force of Georgia miners. Everything is moving along down at this mine in a profitable manner. All the other mining operations in this county are being pushed forward in the usual manner.

On Jan. 13, 1902, Hon. Grosvener introduced a bill in congress to appropriate annually ten thousand dollars out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated arising from the sale of public lands to each State and Territory for the establishment and maintenance of schools or department of mines and mining in connection with the colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts now established or may be hereafter established in accordance with the provision of an Act of congress approved July 2, 1882, with an increase of the amount after the first year for ten years. Hon. F. C. Tate secured the adoption of the amendment including the N. G. A. College at Dahlonega, and she will come in for her share of about 5 thousand dollars annually.

J. B. Witt, who has been in Gainesville bookkeeping for some time, returned home last Saturday.

The sheriff has some valuable property advertised to be sold in this issue on the first Tuesday in April.

J. B. Waters, of this county, killed a nine months old porker the other night weighing 312 pounds after it was cut up.

A few days ago Guy Reese, of Dahlonega, broke his arm in some manner while running on a street car line in Atlanta.

Bear in mind that you can't loaf around town after 11 o'clock at night. If you do it won't pay you to let the marshal know it.

New York doesn't agree with Dr. Wheelchel like Dahlonega. While in that city less than two months he fell off 20 pounds.

February wound up with a severe rain storm delaying the mails, but fortunately damaged no bridge in the county that we have heard of.

The 17th inst. is Lumpkin county's blockaders day in the U. S. Court, and the attendance of defendants and witnesses will be large.

Mr. Ashley has never been able to get his boiler to its destination. It is still down on Crookel Creek and will be until the roads get better.

It doesn't look like seventeen stores could thrive in Dahlonega. But they do and the goods have to be hauled from the railroad a distance of 25 miles.

The drug stores of Dahlonega have been reduced down to one. There is plenty of business for one but not enough for two now. But when the railroad comes there is no telling how many it will take.

Shockley apples sold at $1.25 per bushel from the wagon in Dahlonega last week. This unusual high price for apples should induce our farmers to plant large orchards. There is big money in apples.

It is said that a fellow with the small pox attended the Rice Arrade sale out in the country the other day. It is strange that some people having this disease don't care who they give it to and run about like wild beasts.

J. H. Carter, of the bank of Dahlonega, and B. S. Holder and C. S. Allen, of Ellijay, have applied to the state secretary for a charter granting them the privilege of establishing a bank at Ellijay to be called the Gilmer County Bank.

Mr. Breyman returned last Friday after a few days absence in the north. The gentleman has large interests at both ends of the line which need his personal attention often, keeping him on the move most all the time. He was accompanied by Mr. Albrecht, of Columbus, Ohio.

The Methodist minister gave the cursing, dancing and liquor drinking members of his church a severe scolding last Sunday, causing quite a number present to feel very uncomfortable in their seats. A series of meetings will soon begin at their church and from what the divine said he did not want any of those defective members to take a part in it just for a show.

The oldest man residing in Lumpkin county now is Daniel Hyden who is 107.

Henry Lee sends us word that he will be in soon with his announcement for Clerk of the Superior Court.

A series of meetings commence at the Methodist church next Sunday. The pastor urges every body to attend.

We learn that Frank Crisson and Drew Hollifield had a little twist across the river last Sunday. Liquor was the cause.

A rare chance for boys. For every twenty Army Cartridge shells, five cents will be paid at Mr. Meader's store.

Last Monday, while a lot of young boys were hunting little Stevie Rice was accidentally shot in the thigh with a 22 cartridge by Charlie Davis, a son of the sheriff. Dr. Wheelchel doesn't consider the wound dangerous, however.

The indigent pension money is helping out the people of this county considerably. We heard of one returning from market last Sunday with a lot of meat and flour which he expects to put in his store for the benefit of his customers.

A box sopper was given up at Cane Creek school house Saturday night, the proceeds of which are to go for the purchase of some school books. Every thing was passing off quietly until Green Stargel and Frank Wimpy (not the tax collector Frank) got into a little row.

We are told that a blind tiger is in full blast down about the Calhoun where liquor can be bought by the drink or gallon, the biggest days business being on Saturday and Sunday. There was so much drinking last Saturday that women had to close their doors against drunken men.

Most of the candidates say that they are going to wait until Court before they have their announcements published. Our notion is if they do this they will not be in it. Judge Estes is not going to hold court here as long as there is small pox in the county, is our opinion, which you will doubtless find out later. Look how it's spreading in Hall county on account of court.

The postmaster at Dexter, Texas, is one of the most cheeky officials we have heard of lately. This week he sent us a money order for 75 cents instructing us to send the Nugget 12 months to a certain gentleman in that section after taking out 25 cents commissions. As we don't do business that way we returned the money order. It takes nothing less than $1.00 to get the Nugget.

The board of roads and revenues of Hall county have published the following notice, which example should be followed by the authorities of Lumpkin county. It reads as follows: You are hereby warned to remain away from all houses in which there is small pox or other contagious disease. And all persons who have been exposed to same, are ordered to isolate themselves and not to mingle with the people, until discharged by a regular practicing physician. If you fail to comply with this order and the law in such cases made and provided, you will be prosecuted to the full extent of law.

Little Billie "Signal" is almost heart broken because the mayor fined him one dollar and cost the other day for loafing around after 11 o'clock at night, and says that it is nothing but robbery. Why did he enter a plea of guilt for, if it is robbery? The object of this law is to punish men for being out late at night drinking liquor when they ought to be at home with their families. Some years ago we tried it. We don't mean that we had a wrestle with a big buck negro like Billie did, but we shot a few fire crackers and the mayor fined us $5.00 for it. We kicked and spured a little until we got clear of liquor and then saw that it was not heavy enough.

Doyle Moore left for Atlanta last Tuesday where he goes to complete a three months course in short hand writing.

The couple of lovers who went up on Findley ridge to take an observation of the weather the other day failed to make any report.

The many months of exposure of the college flag to rain hail, sleet, snow and storms both day and night causes it to present a bad appearance.

J. A. Lance, of this county, left last Monday for Black Springs, Ark., where he goes to visit his sisters with the expectation of spending about three months.

The long continued disagreeable weather has caused the farmers to be behind with their work considerably in this section. In fact they have been unable to do but little work.

Most every week strange faces can be seen in Dahlonega looking over the gold fields of this section, which are attracting the attention of gold seekers in various parts of the United States.

The Pennsylvania Grit says that Joe Weaver a week after murdering Vest Stepp and John Wilson, near Ducktown, Tenn., killed deputy sheriff Frank Harlen near Dahlonega. The latter is news to us.

About six or eight hundred almanacs have been sent to Dahlonega by the Perana company to advertise its medicine. There is no use here, for every one using liquor must have been drinking it as a substitute.

Dahlonega with a population of more than 1200 souls has lost only one person by death in more than two months. This should cause us all to feel thankful, for before the elapse of two more months several of us may be called away.

Young man, when you go courting at night don't stay after 9 o'clock. The cat gets sleepy and the old folks fretted when your visit is longer than this. An hour or so is ample time to look each other in the face with the prettiest and most loving smiles you can produce.

The rain here on Tuesday of last week was very heavy but no serious damage occurred. The Gainesville and Dahlonega mail, together with several teamsters from the latter place were water bound both this and the other side of Thompson's bridge in Hall county for several hours, rendering them unable to make the trip on time.

There is said to be a panther up near Porter Springs district which is causing the citizens of that community some uneasiness. The other night a big animal supposed to be the panther, got on top of a fellows house up there and he had to throw tobacco into the fire to keep it from going down the chimney. Just think of people chewing and smoking a stuff which wild animals cannot even bear the scent of.

The citizens in the upper part of the county and those all along the line have been working hard to get a rural mail delivery of a 25 miles route established. The required number of petitioners have already signed the application as required by the postoffice department. It will run via. Garnet mine, Wilow, widow Tates and back down by the Charles Anderson old place. This is one of the most needed routes in the whole county. As it is, some of the citizens residing only ten miles from Dahlonega can't get a paper or letter in less time than six days sent from this place. A person could die and be buried before their relatives in the upper portion of the county could receive the news if the present mail facilities had to be depended upon for the information. Up at Porter Springs, to the right of this much neglected neighborhood, Col. Farrow has succeeded in having a daily line from Dahlonega to Porter established during the summer, and three times a week in winter, and a daily line runs by Auraria, but up this other way there is nothing.

Dr. Wheelchel is going to procure a full line of drugs and fill his own prescriptions.

Watch for dates and renew your subscription to the NUGGET if you wish it to visit your premises.

The city council says the air guns must go. That's right. They are too dangerous for children to handle.

Should there be any mistakes in our city and county directory we will be glad for those interested to make it known to us.

If you are needing any wall paper call on C. W. Housley who has a full line of samples and will furnish you cheap.

There will be no farm purchased for the paupers as long as the committee can make arrangements to have them taken care of at $5.00 per month.

A blockader appeared in the outskirts of Dahlonega last Tuesday and retailed liquor to sixteen year old boys same as if the law gave him the right to do so.

Last Tuesday being Arbor day the students of the N. G. A. College carried out a very interesting program in the afternoon, which lasted for two hours or more.

The public roads are in bad condition but nothing can be done on them until the weather changes. It has been raining one day and freezing the next for some time.

In last week's paper we said that John Chapman would be tried in the U. S. Court charged with breaking open a postoffice. It should have read John Chatten.

John H. Moore and others are setting out a lot of shade trees. This is a move in the right direction. Nothing beautifies a man's premises more than a lot of nice shade trees.

The other morning when a lady of Dahlonega went to make up her little twelve or fourteen year old sons bed she found a pistol under his pillow. Pistols are dangerous bed mates for boys.

The pauper's home of this county was sold at public sale last Tuesday which was purchased by Culyin Jackson for $400, the money paid over and placed in the bank. All property advertised by the sheriff was settled off without any sales.

The remainder of the stock of goods belonging to W. E. Matthews was auctioned off this week by receiver Charlie Kerr and every body is supplied with stock powders and old left over patent medicines now, and we hope to see everything and every body looking healthy and well hereafter.

Judge E. H. Crosby, of New York, will be the next attraction of the Dahlonega Lyceum Course and it will be one of the greatest of the series. Judge Crosby's lecture will be on "Tolstoy and his Philosophy of Life." And no man in America is better able and equipped to handle this great subject. Judge Crosby is President of the Civic Council of New York City, was for many years a permanent member of the legislature and was by President Harrison appointed Judge of the International Tribunal in Egypt where he served for four years. At college chapel March 15th.

Last Friday William Brackett, a brother of the postmaster of Auraria, broke out with small pox in the same building in which the office is kept. To be certain about it Judge Huff sent Dr. Jones down to examine and report, who returned saying that it was a genuine case of the disease. After this the mail carrier came and went by without stopping, depriving the citizens of that community of all mail matter. The law makes it the duty of the postmaster when any contagious disease breaks out in the office to notify his securities and let them take charge of the same temporarily at another building, at the same time burning all the stamps and everything else in the office. The office has been removed to Smith Bro's store for the present.

Both Phimu and Decora letter heads and envelopes for sale at J. F. Moores.

Harris Postell, of Lumpkin county, who was dangerously burnt down at Comer, Ga., last week, was turned over to his relatives who sent after him this week.

J. F. Castleberry received a telegram from Atlanta stating that his son, Homer, was very low and not expected to live. Mr. Castleberry left for that city early Wednesday morning.

Joseph Morris, residing near the line of Lumpkin and Hall counties had his house and contents destroyed by fire the other day. The fire originated in some cotton in the back part of the dwelling.

The grip struck Dahlonega about a couple of weeks ago for the first time this winter, causing some of our citizens much suffering. It gave us about the first call and had us down a time or two.

The city council will borrow enough money from Mr. Packard at a very reasonable rate of interest to keep up the expenses of the town until some is collected. Only two hundred dollars will be secured now.

At Price & Reeses fresh candies, crackers, fancy and staple groceries, and remember we are selling good cotton checks 44 per yard, best 54. Good yard wide sheeting 5. Best drilling 64. Simmon's Liver Regulator 15 cents package. PRICE & REESE.

Use to when boys and girls were growing up they would tie and play with June bugs when not at work until sixteen years of age. Now a girl has to have long trail dress and a bustle and the boys a bicycle and a cigarette and both out in search of a bean long before this age. How times change.

One of our northern subscribers at Pontiac, Mich., in renewing his subscription to the NUGGET this week adds: "I congratulate you upon the success you have had in making the northern mining investors appreciate the fact that there are men that know more than they did in regard to mining in Georgia."

E. E. Crisson has just received a new line of all kinds of goods, such as hats, shoes, ready made clothing, dress goods, dress trimmings, etc., etc., all priced at very reasonable figures, and enough to supply the wants of the people. Also a full line of produce. Caut and pickled beans 2 cents per pound. Also plenty of dried and shuck beans, &c.

One of our patrons at Watkinsville, Ga., who is a member of the board of education, in renewing his subscription to the NUGGET Tuesday wound up his letter with the following lines: "I see you favor a state school book law. I have been a member of the board of education in this county for some time and I can agree with you about the necessity of such a law."

Prof. Boyd was in from the Cavenders Creek mine last Monday who stated that they were getting ready to begin operating their mine as fast as possible. The big crusher will soon be ready to run. Mr. Jones, the owner of the mine, is now at his home in North Carolina, but will start for this place in ten days or two weeks, accompanied by his family. Cayender's Creek will certainly be a lively place when spring opens up.

Some times ministers who come to Dahlonega neglect to do their duty, we suppose, thinking that the members of the church will get mad and refuse to pay in anything. But the present pastor of the Methodist church is not built that way. When he hears of members violating the rules of the church he tells them so right to their faces. This he did last Sunday and no one disputes his word. We heard one member who was present telling an absent member about it last Monday, and his language was: "Brother Pierce gave the members h—l yesterday but he told the truth."

Council Proceedings.

The following business was transacted by the city council last Monday night:

The account of J. E. Beck and G. W. Jenkins of $2.12 for filling holes in street was allowed.

The marshal was ordered to fill up holes in Singleton street and keep an account of the expenses of same.

A petition of M. J. Williams asking to be allowed to put up a pair of two tons scales on the public square was read and referred to the street committee.

The petition of John H. Moore asking to erect a slaughter house on land lot No. 952-12-1 was granted provided that it be kept in a sanitary condition subject to the inspection of the board of health.

The account of A. F. Stow for $1 for holding city election was ordered paid.

An account of J. E. McGee for $7.27 was ordered paid.

A petition requesting that the barber shops be allowed to keep open until 10 o'clock a. m. Sundays was refused.

The marshal made his report as follows: Sanitary tax collected $8; dog tax $10. For relief of poor during snow: Wood for Amanda Haskaw 50 cents, wood for Rose Austin 75, wood for Geo. Sissum 60, food for Amanda Haskaw 78, total $2.63.

A committee was appointed to ascertain what attorney's fees are necessary in the cases now pending in the Superior Court against the city.

Ordinance No. 153 prohibiting the shooting of sling shots was amended so as to include air guns.

T. F. Jackson and J. E. McGee were elected tax assessors for the present year.

The following special tax ordinance was passed: For each circus performance $50. For shows other than circuses $10. Negro or other minstrel performances $5. Upon all foot peddlers $2.50 per year. Upon peddlers with one horse $5 annually. Upon two horse peddlers $10.

The marshal was instructed when the time arrives for lighting lamps conflicting with his duty at the postoffice, to light the lamps.

A resolution was passed authorizing the mayor and clerk to borrow $400.00 for the period of eight months from this date in liquidating the outstanding indebtedness of the city.

The town was full of candidates last Tuesday. J. B. Simmons, of Two Run, informed us that he would have his announcement for county treasurer in a short time. And Marion Calhoun is thinking of trying it for tax receiver. Lively times may soon be expected.

Prayer.

MRS. E. E. ORCUTT.

Does not every heart in the hour of trouble instinctively appeal to its maker? And yet how often when relief has been given the thought is, it only happens so, and grateful thanks are forgotten. Dr. Edward Young in his Night Thoughts says: Prayer ardent opens heaven, lets down a stream of glory on the consecrated hour of man in audience with the Deity. And Tennyson expresses a similar thought in other words. The missionary Mrs. Winslow said: "Be sure in exclamatory prayer through the day, often lift up your hearts on high."

Just to read a psalm or even one verse often calms the disturbed Protecting Him After a Fashion.

Burglar—"Take off that coat and vest."

Victim—"But I shall get chilled if I disrobe."

Burglar—"No, you won't. I'll keep you covered with this gun." Chelsea (Mass.) Gazette.

Need of a Physician.

We know of many men addicted to strong drink who have in their sober moments, prayed long and faithfully that the drink-devil might be cast out from them, but their habit has become a disease, and they cannot heal themselves, even by means of prayer.

Advertising Bankers.

A New York firm of bankers has tested the value of newspaper advertising, and one of the members expresses the opinion of a short time when all bankers will adopt the methods of the merchants in increasing their business.

mine and gives the peace of God. True our Heavenly Father knows all our wants and gives us many unasked blessings, still we are assured He will be inquired of by the children of Israel, and do not revivals in the churches come in response to earnest, united prayers? Many will recall that George Muller insisted that it was in answer to prayer he received means to support his orphan houses and said that all Christians had the same privilege as he had, that his was not an exceptional case. No doubt many blessings would come to individuals if they prayed in faith and when having received of thankful spirit.

In Siberia rivers flow over ice, old and solid as rock. A tributary of the Lena river has underneath the soil which forms the bed of the river, a bed of pure ice over nine feet thick. A freak of nature is the lost river in Kentucky. It is known as the Hidden River, because no one knows its origin, and it vanishes into a cave leading no one knows where. It flows without a ripple, and is of a pale bluish color. Speaking of color, the Chinese believe that the Yellow River has always been of its present hue, except one day about 3600 years ago, on which occasion a great man was born, and the water was clear for 24 hours.

In the Mayor's court in Girard Fla., Saturday, Will Horn, a young white man, was fined $25 or ninety days for kissing a young lady who was on the streets. When the sentence was announced he made a break from the court room, darted past the officers, and, gaining the street, made straight for the wagon bridge. He was pursued, but made the bridge in safety and escaped into Georgia.

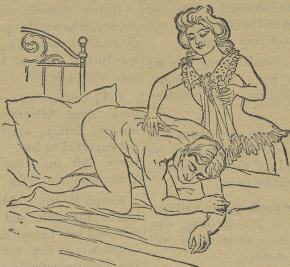

It has been remarked, says the Waterloo Courier, as a curious fact that a picture of a man has never appeared on a United States coin and that a picture of a woman has never appeared on a postage stamp. An editor, observing this remarks that is why we hold the coin and lick the stamp.

Try Again and Again.

Almost every one, sometime in life, has tried to help another, and very often we have felt that we have helped in vain. But let us never be discouraged, for though our efforts may seem to be lost in this life, yet they are not in the beyond. God watches over our every effort, let it be great or small. So if you have failed in helping another, either friend or brother, then try again and again, for "He who watches over all" will help you when you fail.—Ex.

Baby Incubator.

A lady who has recently returned from New York gives a most interesting description of a "baby incubator." These affairs are made to increase the chances for living in the case of very small or fragile new-born infants. The one described was made of glass on three sides the bottom only being wood. It was made comfortable with padding of fleeciest lambs wool. The baby had on only one garment of thinnest texture. It was kept heated by hot water the temperature regulated by a thermometer. Fresh air was admitted by openings near the foot of the box. The baby takes its food from a bottle and seems to enjoy it. Its meals were prepared by a scientific chemist who changed the proportions of constituent parts every time the bottle was refilled. The incubator and its tiny occupant was never for one moment from under the watchful eye of a trained nurse. The baby's face could have been covered with a silver dollar. The lady remarked, she was told that when it got to weigh one pound and a quarter they would take it out of its unnatural home and dress it. Truly the world do move! If mother Eve could rise from her sleep and see a "baby incubator" what would she think!—Marietta Journal.

An Awful Fact.

A man can tell a false story until he believes it is true. So men are "given over to reprobacy of mind and hardness of heart to believe a lie that they might be damned." Friend is your life above law? Might it not be both wisdom and business in you to look at once into this matter and see just where you stand? The end of your life is approaching, and you may have to face unexpected realities.—Hicks.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Interesting Facts and Figures
Given by Mr. Beck.

Rev. A. J. Beck, of Decatur, candidate for State School Commissioner, in his first address at Newnan the other day, gave some very interesting school figures in Georgia, something in which every man, woman and child within its borders are interested.

In the beginning of his address Mr. Beck said the report of the department of education for 1900 showed a loss of several thousand in the school enrollment. "There is an apparent gain of 6,808," says Mr. Beck, "but there is, however, a mistake of 1,000 in subtraction and the figures ought to be 5,808, but while there was a gain in actual attendance of 5,808, there was a gain in school population of nearly 12,000, and so there was a real loss in attendance of something like 6,000. Going back as far as 1898, we find that with a school population of 604,971, there was an enrollment of 436,682, which is 72 per cent. In 1900, with a school population of 682,870, there was an enrollment of 484,385, which is 70 per cent. A loss of 2 per cent. An analysis of the reports will show about the same loss in average attendance.

Again by comparing these same reports issued by the present state school commissioner we find that the average salary of public school teachers in 1894 was $129.94. In 1900 the average salary was $122.98. That is, we have actually lost in percentage of enrollment and average attendance and in the average pay of the teachers, notwithstanding the public school fund for 1900 was half a million dollars greater than it was in 1894. Now, have we made any gain in the length of the school term? It was 100 days in 1894 and 100 days in 1900. Where is the proof of the boasted advancement of Georgia's common schools during the last few years with an increase of only 10 per cent in school population? We have made an extra outlay of half a million dollars, with no lengthening of the school term, no increase in percentage of attendance or enrollment no addition to the average pay of the common school teacher. What has become of the half million dollars?"

Mr. Beck then took up the subject of uniform textbooks. He said he alone was the only candidate who had declared in favor of that issue. He said he was ready to meet any of the other candidates concerning it. He said there were two sides to the question—the side of the book publishers who have things their own way in Georgia for many years, and the side of the people who are paying every year, and paying needlessly many thousands of dollars for the high priced books. He cited the Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Louisiana and Texas has the uniform textbook system. He said it was cheaper to buy goods at wholesale prices than at retail. He said publishers would furnish books to the state cheaper than it would to any single county. He said that when sample copies of books were sent to the 137 county school commissioners and the 685 members of the county boards of education a rich harvest was reaped by the members of the boards and the commissioners as there were men in Atlanta who bought these sample books from the commissioners and resold them to the public. He said these samples were all paid for by the people of Georgia as the publishers put on extra prices as a result.

Don't Laugh.

How often have you seen a drunken man stagger along the street?

His clothes are soiled from falling, his face is bruised, his eyes are dull. Sometimes he curses the boys that tease him. Sometimes he tries to smile, in a drunken effort to placate pitiless, childish cruelty.

His body, worn out, can stand no more, and he mumbles that he is going home.

The children persecute him, throw things at him, running ahead of him.

Grown men and women, too, often laugh with the children, nudge each other, and actually find humor in the sight of a human being sunk below the lowest animal.

The sight of a drunken man going home should make every other man and woman sad and sympathetic, and, horrible as the sight is it should be useful, by inspiring in who see it, a resolution to avoid and to help others avoid that man's fate.

That reeling drunkard is going home.

He is going home to children who are afraid of him, to a wife whose life he has made miserable.

He is going home, taking with him the worst curse in the world—to suffer bitter remorse himself after having inflicted suffering on those whom he should protect. And as he goes home men and women, knowing what the homecoming means, laugh at him and enjoy the sight.

In the old days in the arena it occasionally happened that brothers were set to fight each other. When they refused to fight they were forced to it by red-hot irons applied to their backs.

We have progressed beyond the moral condition of human beings guilty of such brutality as that. But we cannot call ourselves civilized while our imaginations and sympathies are so dull that the reeling drunkard is thought a funny spectacle.—New York Journal.

Remarkable Opinion.

In one of the most remarkable opinions known to surgery, says a Baltimore special to the N. Y. World, the brain of Rev. William Stark, pastor of the Broadway German Methodist Episcopal church, of Baltimore, has been actually lifted from its bed and the roots of certain nerves that had caused the clergyman excessive neuralgia, were extracted. The patient is said to have stood the operation well and few doubts of his recovery are entertained. The operation was performed at the Johns Hopkins hospital.

Turning off the Old.

The employer who would turn off a man who has been in his service for years just because he was old, would kick a baby to death if nobody was looking. If anybody is to be turned off, turn off young ones. They can land on their feet and they have a lifetime before them in which to earn the right to be retained by some one. Keep the old ones if there is any mercy in your heart.—Ex.

The Semi Weekly Journal, Atlanta, Ga., has inaugurated an agents' contest for the months of January and February, 1902. They are going to divide among their agents $160 in cash to be paid on the first of March, $50 being the first prize. In December they gave $100 to fifteen agents. ### SERIOUS PROBLEM.

Deaf and Dumb Couple's
Substitute for a Door
Bell.

A young deaf and dumb couple who were married recently, and began housekeeping in a flat, have found their greatest difficulty in providing some substitute for a door bell. The door bell already in the building they found, of course, entirely useless, say the New York Evening Post. They consulted all their married friends and acquaintances among the deaf mutes as to what to do, but it appeared that all of them had either married persons who could, so their experience counted for nothing. Obviously, in the absence of the sense of hearing, either sight, smell, taste or touch had to be relied upon the show them when a visitor was at the door.

The first idea that occurred to the couple was to remove the bell and hang to the clapper ribbons that would wave whenever any one pressed the button, but this would do no good unless some one were looking at ribbons, and it scarcely seemed worth while to mount guard over it at all hours. Then some one suggested fastening a phial of oil of peppermint or attar of roses to the "buzzer" so that it would spill a few drops when it moved. The sense of taste so far as they could devise, could not be made available in any way. Just at present a carpenter is making for the flat a sort of sounding-box, in which the vibration of the bell will be so multiplied to be perceptible to the sense of feeling to the delicate nerves of the deaf. At least they hope this will prove a solution.

A Stupendous Proposition.

The Willis Sharpe Kilmer Newspaper Advertising Agency, which is run for the purpose of getting the Kilmer Swamp Root and other remedies advertising agents' not prices, is making the stupendous proposition of $4 for fifty-two weekly insertion of a five-inch ad., with position head of column alongside reading, etc., etc. This liberal offer if equivalent to eight cents per inch per year, or a trifle more than a cent and a half per insertion for the full five inches with the special position.

We don't know if publishers are accepting, but if they are, this and other States ought to increase their stock of guardians without a moment's delay.

What an insult to the country publisher's intelligence!—Monthly Union.

False Calves.

The necessity of wearing knee breeches at the coronation ceremonies has called the attention of many of those who will participate to the fact that their neither limbs are not as full as could be desired, and steps have been taken to remedy this fault. It is learned that extensive orders for artificial calves of human legs have been placed in France in view of the ceremonies. Now that the United States has decided to send representatives to the coronation the dealers who are making the artificial calves are expecting orders from the other side of the water as well.—London Dispatch.

Hereafter boy convicts will not wear stripes, but will be clothed in suits of brown, and taught reading and writing, so says the state prison commission.

Small pox has made its appearance in Gwinnett county.

In Gainesville some young men had to pay a fine of $5 and cost for refusing to be vaccinated the other day. And in addition were vaccinated.

J. C. Walden, who was rolled to the station house in Atlanta one day last week in a wheelbarrow while in a drunken condition, was found dead in his cell the next morning.

The school laws need to be changed. Let the people support a man for state school commissioner this time who will recommend and dispose of the services of the present school who seems to be working more for the school book manufacturers than for the patrons of schools.

In a Connecticut town the other day a jury awarded a man $50 damages for the loss of two fingers. A day or two later a street car cut off two of the toes of a pet dog, and another jury gave the dog's owner $75 dollars damages. They have queer ideas of relative values in Connecticut.—Savannah News.

Work was commenced yesterday on the extension of the Tallulah Falls railroad from the Falls to Clayton, a distance of fourteen miles. The first five miles out of Tallulah Falls has been contracted for, and work commenced at that end of the line. When this section of five miles is completed the remaining distance will be given out to contractors.—Eagle.

Last week Charlie Smith of Cherokee county, Ga., left home to be gone two or three weeks. Instead of doing this he returned home at 11 o'clock that night and found Bert Vaughn in his wife's room. Upon knocking at the door and it not being opened he bursted in and commenced shooting, wounding his wife's lover. The wife and her escort both made their escape.

On the first page you will find some interesting figures furnished by Rev. A. J. Beck, candidate for state school commissioner, clearly proving that there should be a change made in the management of this important office. We don't know Mr. Beck, neither has he asked us for our support, but if we live and he does till the day of the primary our vote can be counted for him in Lumpkin county.

Sally Hicks was brought here from Arkansas and placed in jail last week. She is charged with the murder of Sally Simpson near Gainesville, in this county, last fall. Mrs. Gibbs, mother of the murdered woman, Grover Gibbs, Jerry Hicks are held in jail as witnesses in the case. Mrs. Gibbs when seen by the writer a few days ago, made the following statement concerning the case: "My home is in Gainesville where I live with my three children and my two grand children (children of the murdered woman.) I came to Banks county last fall to pick cotton. My daughter Sally Simpson, lived with me. Sally Hicks also lived with me a while, but left a few days before the killing. On the night of the killing she came back to my house after we had retired for the night, and asked to be let in for the purpose of getting her clothes. I got up and opened the door. She passed through the room where my daughter was asleep. In a few seconds I heard a pistol fire once. I ran in there and found my daughter sitting up on the bed. She threw her arms around my neck and said, 'O ma! she has shot me.' In a few minutes she was dead."—Homer Cor. Harmony Grove Citizen.

Prince Henry's visit to New York cost that city $109,000.

Blue Ridge will soon have telephone communication with McCays, Tenn., and Blairsville, Ga.

Miss Stone was released 28 times by the newspapers during the month of February, says an exchange.

A Baptist preacher will be tried in Rome for selling his vote for $2. He can't claim that the Lord called him to do this.

One million dollars is to be given for education in the South by a general education board recently organized in New York.

The total number of cars of oil shipped from Beaumont, Texas, in February was 4077, being an increase of 600 over January.

Candidates still continue to come out for office in this county and make it convenient to meet the "dear people" on every hand.

Prince Henry has completed his tour of the United States causing the newspaper men to have to point up something else to fill their columns with.

As brother John Findley has quit the newspaper business out in South Carolina you may look for him in Lumpkin this summer on a fishing trip.

Dr. Nelson of Savannah, Ga., has sued a policeman of that city for $2,500 damages for locking him up in prison through a mistake thinking that the Doctor was another man.

The other morning Mrs. Mollie Saxon, of White county, found a note under her door stating that if she did not leave in ten days she would be taken out and whipped. Wouldn't this be a brave act?

W. W. Findley has severed his connection with the Blue Ridge World and T. W. Kellogg has purchased the outfit and will try his hand in journalism. Success is our best wish.

The Blue Ridge World has suddenly changed from an Estill to a Terrell paper whose new editor predicts that the latter gentleman will carry Fannin county, just to the reverse of the opinion of its former editor.

We don't believe that Commissioner Stevens will be voted out of his office by the people of Georgia this time. The splendid service rendered by him in the agricultural department entitles him to at least another term.

Some of the Republicans want to increase the salaries of the supreme court judges; but are anxious to reduce the salaries of the rural free delivery mail carriers, who have to brave the rain, wind, cold and storms every day to perform their services. There is such a thing as humbly economy.—Jackson County Herald.

You can't pick up a daily newspaper now without seeing an account of a railroad wreck and the loss of many people's lives caused by careless or too fast running. Something should be done. Slipping into a ditch is like going into a battle, you don't know whether you will get out a live or not. If you do you are likely to be a cripple.

Near two hundred persons in White have signed a petition asking that the Board of Roads and Revenues of that county be abolished. In small counties these boards are generally of short duration for they are more expensive than the ordinaries at the same time reduce the laters fees so they cannot make a living out of their offices.

W. M. Sherrill, of Denyer, North Carolina, says that one ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint boiling water, to be drunk when cold, at short intervals will cure any case of small pox in three days. It is a preventive as well as a curative. It is known to have cured in a hundred thousand cases without a failure says a correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury.

We notice that strawberry shipments in South Texas is now under full headway, while the plants are not even putting out about Dahlonega.

It is said that Bud Armstrong and Frank Crisson, who got into a little racket the other Sunday with some parties, have moved out for Ducktown, Tenn.

Col. J. W. H. Underwood has made his announcement for re-election to the legislature from White county. So far as we know he has no opponent. If he has it will not differ for he always gets there just the same.

Hon. Judge Kinsey, of Cleveland, Ga., is alone on the judicial track of this circuit since Judge Estes has retired on account of his declining health. Judge Kinsey is so far ahead that we don't suppose any one will try to catch him for he has too many assistants who will do every thing in their power to help him win the prize.

Attorney General Wright decides that all registered voters last year are qualified to vote in any primary election this year. And in addition all those who may have registered this year up to within fifteen days of such primary election. The attorney general also says that managers of all such elections shall be furnished with properly certified lists of voters by the boards of registrars of each county.

Your attention is called to the announcement of Hon. G. D. Bruce in this issue who is a candidate for re-election to the house of representative from this county. It is useless for us to dwell at length upon his acts while serving the people in this capacity. All well know that he made us a good, faithful, earnest worker, and we have our first person to hear of criticizing his official acts in any manner whatever, which is a very rare thing for legislators.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat and all wrong, if too thin already. Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion. Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

Judge Howard Crosby's lecture in Tolstoy, next Saturday evening will likely be the ablest feature of the entire Lyceum course.

The yellow flag was hoisted at the residence of Mrs. Winnie Howell, residing near the cemetery, by the city marshal last Wednesday. Dr. Head thinks that her youngest grand son has the scarlet fever. It was believed some few months ago that this little boy had the scarlet fever and we hope that it is a mistake this time.

Sunday night old uncle John Carroll's boy came home between eleven and twelve o'clock. The father arose, secured a switch or stick and went to whipping. His wife and other members of the family interfered and Uncle John cleaned out the patch. Carroll's principal weapons were a fire shovel and a chair, whose marks with them left their marks.

In Walton Dr. Robinson thinks that the so called small pox in that county is nothing but chicken pox. This is what one of the physicians first thought when it appeared in Dawson county and never changed his mind until he had a very serious case of it. Grown people rarely ever take chicken pox. This small pox is generally very light and in many cases not as serious as vaccination. When it first broke out in Dahlonega the young man having it returned to his home in Dawson county and hunted most of the time. And one of his room mates who caught it from him was so sore all over that it was very painful for him to sit down.

Nobility Recommends Nervine.

The above portrait is that of Countess Margland, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement: "It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 50 years of age I find it restores the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house." Gratefully yours, CHRISTIANA MEXIA, Countess Margland. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic and strength-builder that starts right in restoring health immediately. Sold by all Druggists. Frank Meaders is now in the lower market with a drove of mules for sale.

FOR SALE:—Mules and horses by J. M. Brooksher, Dahlonega, Ga., on easy terms.

If you are needing any wall paper call on C. W. Housley who has a full line of samples and will furnish you cheap.

Mrs. Hubbard returned to Dahlonega last week after an absence of quite a while. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard are now at the Meaders house.

The new bell for the Presbyterian church has been ordered and in a short while it will be in position and ringing for saints and sinners all alike.

The NUGGET is not only circulated largely at home but it finds its way all over the United States, besides going into Canada and other foreign countries.

Macedonia school house in this county was destroyed by fire one day last week. It had only been built a short while but a defective stove pipe caused its destruction we learn.

Minister Pierce in beginning his series of meetings last Sunday didn't forget to give a few special remarks to the liquor drinkers and cursing members again. The attendance was large and his remarks gave the people something to talk about.

M. J. Williams, a short time ago had eleven houses to rent and by putting a three line reader in the NUGGET a few times soon had them occupied. There is nothing like advertising. It pays every time when put in a paper which has a big circulation both far and near like the NUGGET.

Week before last we reported that Duckett and Garrett had leased a portion of the Singleton mine from the managers of the Standard Co. They made some interesting tests but when the time arrived for the lease to be signed up there was a "fly in the ointment" and the boys went to work elsewhere.

Two parties, pretty full of liquor on Thursday night of last week, made a couple of calls at certain houses in Dahlonega at a late hour, but were not admitted. It was nearly eleven o'clock and had it been five minutes later there would have been another "nothing but robbery" case for Mayor Baker to dispose of again.

Old man Franklin was found dead last Friday morning over on the Yahoola creek near the Columbia mill. He had gone out the day previous apparently in his usual good health after some sarsaparilla and when found had secured what he wanted and started home when death came. He was about 84 years of age, and a good inoffensive old man, never harming any one, but was very poor and had to be buried at the expense of the county. This was the reason no bells were rung and his remains were put away so quietly. Had he been some rich person they would have been talking over him a day or two. But six feet of earth covers them all.

The college dormitory for the girls is completed but not occupied. And it is said that it won't be before the next session of the college. It may be then but we have our doubts about it. There are too many good families in Dahlonega where girls can board at very reasonable figures without having to go to this dormitory which is erected on one of the highest points and most public places in town. The boys dormitory is scarcely ever entirely occupied. We understand that about 40 can be accommodated there and it only has 14 borders. No, the dormitories will never be filled until all the faculty and trustees quit keeping borders. It is natural for them to first work to fill their own premises with students before doing anything in this direction for the dormitories.

Dr. C. H. Jones commenced the addition to his drug store building last Monday.

R. C. Meaders, wife and little girl have returned from Swainsboro, Ga., after an absence of some time.

Last Sunday was a beautiful day and the Methodist minister had a pretty time to begin his series of meetings.

The fire ladders for the city were received some days ago. We trust that they will never have to be used.

Some one should begin the preparation for the manufacture of brick in Dahlonega for there are none here.

Mrs. Strickland leaves for Atlanta next Monday for the purpose of laying in her spring stock of millinery goods.

Our friend Wm. Early was in town the other day in search of some yacine points. He is preparing for war in time of peace.

We may expect a short crop this fall as nearly all the men are candidates for some office, and the women will have to do the best they can in the fields.

An election has been ordered in Crumby's district on the first Saturday in next month by the ordinary for the purpose of electing a Justice of the Peace for said district.

Frequently ministers make calls and find no one at home. They will have to adopt a new plan to catch people. Why wouldn't it be a good idea for them to send a note fixing a certain hour like a boy when he wants to see a young lady?

First before sending any money off into foreign countries let it be remembered that there are poor children right here in Dahlonega who have not had a shoe on their feet this winter, and other people of this class who need attention badly.

A gentleman remarked to us the other day that the price of liquor had been reduced considerably since the recent temperance movement in Georgia. Another thing candidates will buy it by wholesale and give to all male persons of 21 years of age.

Harris Postell, who was so badly burnt down at Comer, Ga., a few days ago, was brought to Dahlonega last Sunday evening. He is in a bad fix, unable to turn over. He was sleeping in a stack of straw when the accident happened but has no idea how it occurred.

Notwithstanding the weather for quite awhile has been very unfavorable for outdoor work, work continued on the dam for the electric railroad every day that any thing could be done at all. But spring will soon be here and they will have but little trouble of this kind any longer. Grading has been resumed.

Last Wednesday Marshal Harrison caught each of the following persons doing some target practice with a pistol within a short distance in rear of the boys dormitory and made cases against them: R. Granger, Wier Gaillard, S. G. Rogers and T. W. Hollis. A $1 and cost each settled it.

Besides a lot of other goods just received at Price & Reeses they have a fresh line of crackers, fancy and staple groceries. Then it will be well enough to bear in mind that they are selling good cotton checks at 4 cents per yard, best 54. Good yard wide sheeting 5c. Best drilling 6c. Simmons Liver Regulator 15 cents a package.

The postoffice at Auraria, which was closed a few days ago on account of the small pox breaking out in the building, has been opened out at Smith Bros. store temporarily. Postmaster Tate of Dahlonega went down and supplied the office with all the stamps and other things needed in the office last Saturday. We trust now that the citizens of that community will have no further trouble, for it is very inconvenient for a thickly settled section like Auraria district to be without a postoffice.

When two friends fall out they generally make the worst enemies known.

Just in, all kinds of spring goods at T. J. Smiths. Call and see them and get prices.

The season will soon be here when lovers can go out and search for early wild flowers.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather some progress has been made in the way of improvements in Dahlonega.

We have had two or three pretty days this week but the ground didn't get dry enough so the farmers could do any plowing.

The potato bugs have already been seen here few in number, likely spies to ascertain the prospects of the crop for the season.

Little Rufe Ed Baker's pony got scared and made a sudden rush with the boy Tuesday but he stuck to the saddle without sustaining any injuries.

A No. 8 Iron King cooking stove new, is worth $25. B. R. Meaders & Son have one in fair shape that they will sell for $8. Also two second hand show cases cheap.

Because of the last survey on the electric line down about New Bridge General Warner said he was of the opinion that he could save about $20,000 by a change.

Mr. Henderson and his wife after spending several weeks here left last week for Tennessee. Later on Mr. Henderson will go to Colorado and engage in mining.

We saw a little ten-year-old girl with a bustle on. If bustles were natural children and even women would despise them and be in search of a doctor to have the ugly things removed.

The songs of the birds and frogs last Sunday and the appearance of Uncle Dick Anderson in his white breeches cheered us up considerably, for it is a sure sign that spring weather will soon open.

It takes years of experience to estimate exactly what an ore is worth per ton by the colors obtained from a panning. Be not deceived. Have your ores assayed by Wharton Anderson, assayer, Calhoun Mine. Send for price list.

Old man Steven's family started out between two sons to join the old man at the marble works in Pickens this week without first settling with M. J. Williams for their house rent. He followed them with an officer armed with an attachment but failed to overtake the people or wagon. Mrs. Stevens also owed Mr. Williams a dollar and two besides for assistance in the way of estates while in want during her husband's absence.

South Georgia syrup reduced to 40 cents per gallon. A nice zinc covered, iron bottom trunk $1.75. A hand saw which others sell at $1.25, our price 72 cents. A nice line of gents ties and a few for ladies at cut prices. Three nice pictures 16x20, framed heavy six inch 90 cents, $1.10, $1.25. Three sewing machines on which we can save you $10 each. Headless white fish 8 cents. If you are honest pay day will come, so why not pay as you go and trade with B. R. Meaders & Sons and in that way save many dollars by next fall.

We are told that on last Sunday in Mill Creek district Will Chambers, a young man of about 25 stabbed old man Meader in the side several times who is at least 60 years of age, and is now in bed suffering badly from the effects of it. Chambers and several others while passing Mr. Meader's house in an intoxicating condition, got up a row in front of it and when the old man went out to try to stop this young man lit in on him with his knife. It is said the Sunday before Chambers rocked Calvin Perry and his wife and caused trouble. He will have to stop such acts or he will be sure to go to the chain gang.

Dr. Howard has recovered so he comes out in town a little on pretty days.

We wish to inform our friends of the press who are running the Dr. Taft Bros. Med. Co., of New York, headed "Asthma Cure Free," that it is unreliable. The firm owes us for advertising and three letters written to it receive no reply, although the first was sent three months ago or more.

John W. Spencer, who was the principal mechanic at the Hand Mine near Dahlonega for a year or more, has moved to Stobo, in Hall county, and gone into the mercantile business. If John handles the yard stick with as much ease as he did the hand saw he will be certain to come out successful in his new business.

The trials of parties residing in Lumpkin county are set as follows in the U. S. Court in Atlanta: To-day, 14th inst: John Chattan. 17th inst: Wm. Fitts, Virgo Parks, Ben Ravan, J. L. Ravan, F. M. Turner, Roe Pirkle, George Peck, Sam Lingerfelt, Sam Anderson, J. N. Freeland, John Abercrombie. 18th inst: James Grizzle, 2 cases, Wilburn Grizzle. 24th inst: James Buchanan, Chas. Crawford.

Whenever a person takes on too much liquor, more especially a ministers of the gospel, it generally brings about trouble. This is what Rev. Wash Caldwell, of this county, did the other day, and severed the ties of friendship between him and several of the members of his church that can never be mended. The particulars are these: One day last week David Jarrard and John Seabolt, two highly respectable young men of Chestatee district, of as good families as reside in the county, started down the country on business. On their way they met preacher Caldwell, their friend, neighbor, brother and pastor, who felt his dram considerably. He pulled out his bottle and handed it to them. They drank and afterwards handed him theirs which was carried in a valise as a health preserver. As is usually the case when a poor man gets pretty full of liquor it makes him feel rich causing brother Caldwell to jerk out his pocket book to show the boys how wealthy he was. During the time he dropped a five dollar gold piece, which was exchanged with one of the boys for other money. So clever was the divine that he wanted to let them have another five of the yellow metal but they didn't have enough silver and greenbacks to take it. So they separated and the young men resumed their journey and the preacher started towards his home in the mountains. When they reached Hall county they were arrested the next day by the deputy sheriff on a telephone message stating that the preacher had sworn out a warrant before Squire O'Kelley of White county, charging them with robbing him of $21.

The young men were brought to Dahlonega by Hall's official and turned over to the sheriff of this county last Sunday. Sheriff Davis got into his buggy and with one of the defendants went up to see brother Caldwell and upon reaching their destination learned that West Stancil has found the pocket book and all the money on the side of the road where this divine had taken a nap. So the warrant was dismissed at prosecutor's cost and the defendants were set at liberty by Esquire W. J. Worley last Monday. This way of preaching drinking liquor is a bad guide for the outside world. And if some of them don't mind their light will be so dim that they will miss the route to heaven and be caught up on the road by the enemy and imprisoned elsewhere.

At John H. Moores you will find seed Irish potatoes, onion sets and other garden seeds.

The Capt. Hall residence and all his other property purchased in this county by the syndicate, was turned over to Capt. Tingsoll, the manager, this (Thursday) morning, by agent E. E. Crisson.

On the night of the 6th inst, quite a large crowd of people gathered at the residence of the widow Barrets, at Half Way and partook of a most excellent supper, as the result of Rev. M. L. Anderson and Miss Jennie Barret being wedded, ceremony being performed by Squire W. P. Gillespie.

Quite a number of children have had the scarlet fever up in Cane Creek district within the past few months but only one death occurred. It was hoped that it had all been stamped out, but some of James Ridley's children are sick and it is feared that they are taking this much dreaded disease.

The last legislature passed a law (which has just been learned here on account of the delay in the new acts reaching this county) rendering it unnecessary to hold an inquest over a body found dead unless there are acts of violence shown. This is a good law, and Lumpkin county would have been twenty-five or fifty dollars better off to day had this law been known in time. Now if Judge Hull will let pauper corpses out to the lowest bidder a good deal of money can be saved in this way.

Just received a nice line of percales, madras, chambra, white table linen, hosiery, handkerchiefs, trimmings, shirt waist patterns. All colors in laws. Light weight underwear, ties, gloves, &c. These goods have been bought close and I am selling them close. Call and be convinced that my prices "knock out" all competition. The special bargains I have been giving lately, still hold good, with new articles being added daily. My aim is to serve you with honest goods at saving prices.

E. S. COVELAND.

The panther, or what land it is that is roaming over the woods in the vicinity of Porter Springs district, is causing women and children and even some of the men much uneasiness up in that part of the county. It has a time or two went right up to peoples houses, and once got on top of one, but the inmates had no chance to kill it, and threw tobacco into the fire for fear that it might make its entrance down the chimney. A few nights ago it was seen we are told, by Ed McDonald residing in that section who had a double barrel shot gun heavily loaded and it was so large and dangerous looking that he was afraid to shoot at it. A party was organized the first of the week to search for it but the effort was fruitless. Henry Ash, residing in Cane Creek district, who was in town last Monday, thinks maybe that it is the same animal which visited his section during the snow. Mr. Ash said that there were two and they stepped into each others tracks just like people until they came to a thick cluster of woods. Then they would separate a little distance, apparently in search of something to eat. Then when resuming their journey one would step into the others tracks again. He says that the biggest one made a track as large as a mule a year old and would sink clear down to the ground through the ten inch snow, which could be seen in soft places even after the snow was all melted. Their tracks were followed for six hours. When coming to a fence they would scale one ten rails high without the second effort, their legs being so long that they left no signs of dragging them even in this deep snow. They killed one of his large sows and cut its head smooth off, which was eaten and the other portion left. Now what are they? Is it any wonder that the people in that section are alarmed when these things can jump six feet at a leap as was shown during the snow?

Mining Notes.

The Standard Co. has decided not to lease any part of the Singleton property as some of its members have determined to work it later on themselves.

Roberts and Sons have not been able to run their little mill down at the Gordon much the past winter owing to the extreme cold disagreeable weather, but what time it did run the results were very good. The ore is not to hunt. The veins have already been discovered, and as soon as the weather is favorable they will begin to make big money.

They hold the record for placer mining in Georgia at the Calhoun mine. The last 2471 square yards of slate skinned was done at a cost of 25 cents per square yard. The ground averages 12 feet in depth, with from one to four feet of gravel. This deposit mine is being worked night and day by a giant and hydraulic lift using 1100 gallons of water a minute.

Last week Superintendent Marion Chester of the Crown Mountain Co. and Gen. Warner had a little misunderstanding causing Mr. Chester to quit the Company and W. W. Crisson is in charge temporarily now. Mr. Chester thoroughly understands mining and a search for a more competent one would be fruitless. He has been following the business a long time and where allowed to exercise his judgment never failed in making his employer money.

The veins at the Fishtrap mine, being worked by Fate Johnson and Billy Riley are still holding out good, making it very interesting to those working it. Several very rich veins have been discovered right in an old road which have been traveled over by hundreds of peoplesome of them expert miners in search of gold veins. Johnson and Riley also have a lease on a portion of the Ivy property, which they will look after later on. J. L. Davis took out a run of ore on it recently but has not had it beat yet. With such old miners as this all in search of gold we may expect to hear of them being successful in their undertakings.

At the Hand 20 stamps of the big mill are running continuously both day and night on $4.50 per ton ore with splendid results. The clean ups have been very satisfactory for some time but that of last week was better than usual. In addition to this, five stampers operating a portion of the time so as to enable Mr. Ereyman to test his amalgamator. This he has not got to operating to his notion yet, keeping it tore up and working on it a portion of the time. So we don't know what this new experiment will amount to. It belongs to Mr. Ereyman alone and the expenses attached to it costs no other person a cent. The company will never be asked to take an interest in it unless the inventor proves it to be a success. Later.—The air compressor is giving out, causing about half the drills to cease work until it can be repaired.

The Crown Mountain pump trouble all seems to be over now and things moving along in very good shape. General Warner is giving the mine his personal attention and all things have been carried out according to his full directions it seems for some time. Whether the General understands the formation of this country well enough to make a success of this business time will only tell. There is one thing certain and that is this: If the General will put the cuts in proper shape so that ore can be transferred to the mills to keep them constantly running big money will be made at this mine. If not the mine will be a failure. This is the whole truth in a nut shell. This can be done by giving the cuts the proper grade so the mills can be easily supplied with ore at the cost first calculated. There is no better gold mine in the whole country than Crown Mountain, but it is like any other business—has to be worked properly to make it profitable.

The Movement Southward.

American citizens of the North and Northwest are migrating southward in ever increasing numbers, bringing the capital, energy and intelligence to aid in developing the natural resources of this section. The movement that has begun is likely to grow as the years pass by. The settlers from the North send back reliable information to their former neighbors and tell them of the opportunities that present themselves here for bettering their condition, and the information will have its effect in attracting thousands from the blizzard-swept prairies of the Northwest to the genial climate of the South. The movement is to be welcomed on many accounts. The newcomers, who are already American citizens, are far preferable to the riffraff of Europeans in addition to our population. The infusion of this new element will stimulate activity in every line of business, help to break some sectional prejudices and unify the republic. The growth of the South does not imply the decay of any other section. On the contrary, it will bring increased prosperity to every part of the Union.—Lynchburg News.

Ready-Made Journalism.

Some of the daily papers of the South are commenting unfavorably upon the use by the weeklies of ready-made editorial, prepared at some common editor and distributed broadcast, either in press sheets in electrolyt from, the only editing necessary being done with a saw. This, of course, requires no brain work, and is a very easy way of providing reading matter. It is, though, rather a drawback upon the weeklies which endeavor, against the flood to maintain their standing for originality and loveliness.

In some directions is a reform under way in this particular and a strong purpose to return to original work. In the meantime, the weeklies might suggest to their city contemporaries that the latter are not above criticism, inasmuch as not a few of their pages, especially the pages of the top, have, dull Sunday issues, are dependent largely upon ready-made stuff just as cheap in its way and just as worthless as the ready-made editorials of the weeklies.—Ex.

Needs of the South.

The steady increase in populations, growth of the towns, the productions of the soil the greatest increase in manufacturing, the uncommon opportunities offered for investment of capital, the climate, soil and variety of productions, these particularly attract investors and cause a stir in the North. The south naturally can produce a great deal. All that is needed in farming are industry, judgment, common sense as to improvement of land, and a wise selection of crops to be cultivated. The south can do great things in agriculture, and is asserting itself as a progressive power in manufacturing. All that are needed to make the South a great producing country are peace, education, industry and an intelligent, increased population.—Wilmington Messenger.

Thinks Girls are Cunning.

A young editor who was jilted sounds these notes of warning: "Yes, verily girls that are pretty are if a few days and full of mischief, and the man who is deceived by their cunning ways is indeed a fool. When the fair one chews gum hastily and stamps her feet, then beware. She cometh forth in the evening in a low necked dress and short sleeves but in the morning she lieth in bed while her mother husheth. She eateth of the young man's oysters, but when the spring time cometh she winketh the other eye and goeth with a beau."

Competition.

A fundamental fact which persons who have articles to sell or services to render cannot ignore, is that this is a time of sharp competition, in which there is a tremendous effort of enterprising men to increase their share of business. Inevitably the business man who shall not keep his establishment before the people will be forgotten. As long as there shall be men who advertise constantly and loudly, nobody will change their mind with remembering those who do not advertise.—Marietta Journal.

The Heat of Australia.

Australia is the hottest country on record. I have ridden for miles the equator, but I have never found heat to compare with this. Out in the country in the dry times there appears to be a little more than a sheet of brown paper between you and the lower regions and the people facetiously say that they have to feed their hens cracked ice to keep them from laying boiled eggs.—Sydney Telegraph.

The men who have made market success in business have been men of nerve. The men who have become discouraged at the first bad season or when business becomes dull, have been the men who have failed. Persistent effort and success are inseparable. After a lively season of business when the dull days come on there is more reason than ever for exercising business nerve. The daller business becomes the more effort should be put in advertising a business. In this way business will be attracted to your store, for it is then the fanthearted quits hustling, and you have the advantage. It's easy to win a trade when the other fellow gives up and lays down. The man who faints by the wayside finds recovery a very slow business. Trade is sure to forget the man who forgets to solicit trade. It is fickle and requires a great deal of courting. Try regular, present, faithful, never give up, stick to it, always advertising in this paper, and half the fight for fortune will be done. Keep the stock that the public wants and treat your customers honestly and courteously, and the other half will certainly follow. Try it.—Selected.

It is wonderful how a woman's things stay on. An Atchison girl wore two bows of ribbon, three fancy combs, two flowers, a gold pin and seventeen hair pins in her hair to a dance and had every one on when she returned.—New York Mail and Express.

For twenty-five years Mrs. J. D. Parker of Altoona, Pa., believed herself to be suffering with an incurable case of catarrh. During the period she had the services of many physicians. They told her catarrh was the trouble with her, and gave her lots and lots of medicine for it, without results. The other day she sneezed violently and out from her nose flew a cherry stone. When she was a little girl the stone had lodged in her nostril. Now she has neither trace nor system of catarrh.

A well-to-do farmer in Russell county, Kan., had traded his 10-year-old son and a wagon load of corn for the 13-year-old daughter of a neighboring farmer, equally well-to-do, and the transaction was made a matter of record in the county clerk's office. The reason for the trade was that in the family of which the son was a member there were no girls, while the father of the transferred girl had no boys.—Ex.

The Supreme court of Ohio has established a righteous precedent on the life insurance question. It was where a party has paid premiums for years and afterwards committed suicide. The widow sued, and the company defended on the idea that the insured ended his life, and thereby released the company. The court, on the other hand held, that suicide did not end the contract; but the company had received the premiums and must pay the policy.

Stories of C. B. Rouss.

A recent published article on Mr. Rouss said:

"One of his peculiarities was to pay his employees every night. At the close of business at 6 o'clock, winter and summer, the clerks, porters and others on the pay-roll would go to the cashier and receive their day's wages in an envelop, so that when Mr. Rouss closed his store at night he owed no man a dollar.

"He was always the first to arrive in the morning and was found daily at his desk before 7. He was always the last except the watchman, to leave the building at night, and although he was blind and had many millions of dollars, he put in twelve hours of solid work six days in the week.

"Mr. Rouss considered one week a sufficient time for all his customers in the country to receive their purchases, and he expected the goods to be paid for as soon as they reached their destination. City customers were required to pay cash. He burned his ledger years ago, and afterwards carried on his enormous business, amounting to many millions a year, with only two bookkeepers, who simply recorded the purchases of out-of-town customers and credited them with the pay when it was received.

"A fellow was fool enough to trust me when I first came to New York, and I trusted others," said Mr. Rouss one day. "I smashed all the pieces; owed $50,000, paid it up dollar for dollar, never trusted anybody again and never permitted anybody to trust me."

Mr. Rouss' sight began to fail in 1892 and within three years it failed entirely. Then he made an offer to give $1,000,000 to the person who could restore his sight. As a result of the offer he received thousands of applications by letter and in person from quacks and fanatics, "divine healers," "second sight-seers" and others who wanted permission to practice upon him.

Scientists, doctors and specialists exhausted their skill, but in vain. The eye specialists said that Mr. Rouss was suffering from paralysis of the optic nerve and for that there was no known cure.

It was impossible for him to submit himself to all the various "treatments" which he thought might be worth trying. He therefore, hired another blind man, James J. Martin, who also suffered from the complaint that afflicted Mr. Rouss and who agreed to be a subject for experiments. Mr. Rouss for many months paid Martin $3 a week for his unique services.

"I am too busy a man," said Mr. Rouss at the time, "to allow myself to be experimented upon by every one who comes along. This is why I have engaged Mr. Martin as a substitute. As his affliction is identical with my own I presume that the man who can restore his sight can do as much for me.

"My sight is now almost entirely gone. If it were not for your voice I could not tell whether I was talking to a man or a woman. The only thing visible to me this moment are those huge pillars. I can just discern their hazy outlines," and Mr. Rouss pointed to the supports directly before him.

"I have been successful in my business and have accumulated wealth, but to get back my eyesight I would gladly return to the poverty of my boyhood and as a man begin life over again. I have experimented with many cures and I am willing, through my substitute, to experiment with many more. I have strong hopes that the hypnotist will be able to do what he claims he can."

In October, 1900, Mr. Rouss said he was convinced that the Creator had intended him to be blind until the end of his days and he, therefore, withdrew the $1,000,000 offer. His face was not disfigured in appearance save for a lack of luster. His hair was snow white.

Mr. Rouss a few years ago told the story of his life to a friend in these words:

"I came to New York a poor boy. I had not a cent. I slept in the parks. Now I have three or four millions. That is the whole story.

"My life is the simplest. I come down to my office at 6 o'clock every morning. I am at my desk until 7 or 8 o'clock at night. Then I go home and eat a great supper at 9 o'clock, and go to bed. I rise at 4 o'clock every morning, summer or winter. I take a drive through the park at 5; then come to the office."

"What are your pleasures?" "I have none. I used to go home at night on a Grand street horse car. I stood on the rear platform and threw pennies and nickels to the newsboys and boot-blacks who used to run along after the car. Then the police captain asked me to stop it, and of course I did so.

"That was my only pleasure in life," he continued, plaintively. And the notice made me give that up."

He Knew it Was Sarah.

An old man did not believe that he could hear his wife talk at the distance of five miles by telephone. His "better half" was in a country shop several miles away, where there was a telephone, and the skeptic also was in a place where there was a similar instrument. On being told how to operate it, he walked boldly up and shouted, "Hullo, Sarah!" At that instant lightning struck the telephone wire and knocked the man down. As he scrambled to his feet he excitedly cried, "That's Sarah, every inch!"—Richmond Dispatch.

Moving a Giant Mammoth.

A giant mammoth skeleton, unearthed some time ago in East Siberia, will be brought to St. Petersburg in the coming winter. The task of conveying the distance to Irkutsk, which is the greatest railway station, is some 5000 miles. The skeleton will have to be cut up and treated with arsenic, each portion being incased in cowhide, in order to prevent the air affecting it. As far as Yakutsk the river Lena will be utilized, but from there nearly 2000 miles of swampy forest will have to be traversed. The conveyance will be effected in sleighs, and it is calculated that at least 50 horses will be required to draw them.

Women are not half so crazy after men as you have heard they were. If they were they would not be trying so hard to get to heaven, where men will be as scarce as persimmons on pear trees.—Ex.

Times Fifty Years Ago.

A writer in a recent number of the Forsyth Advertiser has many interesting things to tell of half a century ago. He says:

I often stop and think what marvelous changes have been made in fifty years. In those days the farms supplied everything, the merchants and people in the town buying from the farmer all their supplies. The ways of acquiring an education were limited, often parents had to educate their own children. The children who went to school had to walk very far, and that without regard to wind and weather.

There were no buggies in those days. The first vehicle that I ever saw was a two-wheeled gig and it looked as large and as fine as a parlor car does now.

Methods in farming have greatly improved over the old-fashion-way. We used to spend an entire day in grubbing up roots, then would pile them up and at night after supper carry them to the coal kiln and burn them down and carry them three miles and sell them as coal at three cents a bushel.

In those days the people lived according to the apostolic doctrine: God first; then honesty, then, make all you can. Each summer after the crops were laid by we would gather together at the campmeetings to praise God for His blessings to us. It took time to convert a person, but when he was converted he would stick.

County Commissioners and School commissioners were elected by the people then, and wire pulling and trickery and packing juries were all unknown. It would be well if this were always the custom now.

God grant that we may turn back to these old landmarks of honesty and simplicity and be able to say, when we go from our children that all is well with them and with our country.

Multum in Parvo.

Newspapers are made free horses for many public and quasi-public enterprise to ride upon to success, and too often they are not given proper credit for their liberality in this regard, and are left entirely or almost out of the count when the budget of expenses is made up. When it comes to purely local entertainments and like movements intended for public promotion or special purposes, benevolent or social; very often much money is spent by the undertakers in varied kinds of advertising, while the newspaper advertising which is all important and of paramount necessity is expected to be given gratis. Some good people in a community, for instance, arrange for some entertainment to make money for some laudable purpose, and after paying rent for a hall paying for tickets, the hire of appliances and everything else needed, expects the newspapers to do the advertising for nothing, and then too often, when this all-necessary contribution is made, begrudge a few tickets in the way of courtesy and seem to think that the paper's service is to be taken as a matter of course and is not deserving of the scant courtesy of so much as "I thank you."—Nashville Banner.

We would advise our friends in selecting county officers this year to be sure and elect men who can fill the offices themselves. For one man to be elected and some one else to have to fill the office is not justice.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 21, 1902.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Mayor Edwards of Blue Ridge has the small pox.

The architects will be paid $1000 for the plans of the Atlanta depot.

It is believed that W. J. Bryan will be a candidate for president again. Mr. Bryan is hard to convince.

The council of Dawsonville has passed an ordinance making it a penalty to sell liquor in that place by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50.

J. B. Lipscomb of Gainesville, was sentenced to work 90 days on the streets by Mayor Parker last week and no alternative. Lipscomb has appealed his case to the council.

The tax digest for the receivers of Georgia, are being sent out to those officers now. It took five big express wagons to haul them to the office of the Southern Express Co.

The body of Allen Matthews, engineer on the ill-fated train that was wrecked at Couch's Creek on the 28th ult., was rescued on the 14th inst, where it was held fast in the cab.

It is Dawson county's time to put out a candidate for the senate for this district this time, and we see that the name of Hon. R. B. McClure is mentioned in connection with the office. A good subject.

Commissioner of Agriculture Stevens will likely "keep his seat" for another term, matters not how many opponents he has or who they are. He has made a most excellent official and the people appreciate his good work.

A number of the Georgia editors use plate matter for local and editorial reading. Plate matter use to be read with interest but that day has past now. It answers very well to fill up space. The Nugget uses none of it. We patronize home printers.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of F. W. Wimpy who is a candidate for re-election to the office of tax collector of this county. Mr. Wimpy, during his present term of office has made a good and faithful servant of the people and discharged his duties well.

The cost of Fulton County's primary will foot up $1,500, and the candidates have to furnish the money to pay this amount. The assessment runs from $50 to $125, and still larger amounts for candidates having no opposition. In this county it is different. Some of them don't pay in $1.00, although they think the newspapers and people must work and elect them.

The editor of the Blairsville Herald says that he is reliably informed that Col. Perry, of Gainesville, will be against Judge Kimsey for Judge of this circuit now since the retiring of Judge Estes. Col. Perry is one of the ablest at torneys in Georgia but we believe that he is too wise to make an effort in this direction at this late date. The people have set their heads for Judge Kimsey and it will be a hard matter to get them to change their course.

B. F. Perry, of the Cherokee Advance, and Geo. H. Bell, of the Wiregrass Blade, have decided to go into politics more active by announcing as candidates for the legislature. Better stick to the press. There is so much law already that 40 Philadelphia attorneys can't keep up with it. Good editors like these are scarce and they can be of much more service to the people by remaining at home and following their usual occupation than to go to Atlanta and idle away their precious time in listening to the chin music of so many two by four politicians.

By the influence of Gov. Crane, Mayor Collins and other business men 20,000 strikers resume work in Boston.

It's right funny. What? The Signal, declaring itself for Kimsey after his opponent withdrew from the race and for Charters after being satisfied that he would have no opposition.

All persons who owned property on March 1st must pay tax on it as announced by Comp. General Wright. And people who owned property on that day, and who have since transferred it, will have to pay the tax.

Now since Prince Henry has left the daily papers are giving their attention to a report coming from Beaumont, Texas, asserting that a family named Bennett with assistants have robbed and murdered at least 50 people and their bodies were thrown into the river and devoured by alligators.

Justice Lumpkin and Cobb, of the Supreme bench are candidates for re-election. The common voter does not know anything about such high positions as this or who is qualified to fill them, so the lawyers will have to be the guide in this matter. The idea of changing the law so these high officials have to be elected by the people is ridiculous.

Another car-load of poles for the electric railway were this week received. This makes four car loads of poles that have so far come in, besides a lot of cross-ties which have been hauled. As much work as the weather would permit has been done on grading, but it will be possibly the middle of April before the weather will allow anything like regular work on the road building—Eagle.

Mr. Smith, the prospective for governor, is still in the hands of his friends safely quartered behind his many bales of last years cotton crop. They are watching the race with great interest to see if any of the others grow tired and run down before the gubernatorial fox is caught. If either does they will turn him loose and such a yell as will be set up has never been heard before.

The governor of Virginia has vetoed the bill passed by the legislature appropriating $800,000 for pensions for confederate veterans for the reason that it should give to the needy and deserving alone. Had Georgia's Governor took the same steps when such bills as this came before him the state's treasury would have been in better condition and the rate of taxation much less to-day.

Madison Roper is one man who is a staunch believer in vaccination. He says the persons who make the statement that they had just as soon have the small pox as to go through with a vaccination simply do not know what they are talking about. He has this year had the small pox and his entire family, with the exception of one daughter, who was properly vaccinated in time to keep from taking it.—Eagle.

Mr. Johnson, another candidate for state school commissioner, has made a speech declaring himself in favor of uniform text books. Preacher Beck is our man, because he advanced first and declared himself in favor of this system. He didn't wait to see whether it would be popular to do so, but came out boldly and explained why he believed it would be to the people's interest to adopt such a system.

The old Confederate veterans of Georgia have had the opportunity of voting for their ex-commanding officers for Governor, and now Col. Estill gives them the first opportunity to vote for the private with the gun. Stick to your "comrade in arms," old heroes of gray and let the cry be, "On to Atlanta with Estill as Governor!" He was true to Georgia at a time when it tried men's souls and he will be true to her now when peace and prosperity reign.—Wrightsville Headlight.

Mining Notes.

Rider and Fitts have about got their lift ready, on the Ashley property.

Johnson and Riley, working on the Fishtrap mine, made another clean up last week, which paid them a little over $15 per ton.

The mining going on at various places in this county, not mentioned here this week, are moving along as usual with no new developments.

Things down at the Briar Patch mine are in good shape and things moving along smoothly. "Mr. Disney, of Chicago, who has an interest in this property, is down this week in company with another gentleman, making a general inspection.

Adams and Townsend are taking out some good ore on the Singletox which will no doubt give splendid results and good profits when they mill it as the vein is being worked under the old style of economical mining—the ore being drawn up by a windless by elbow power, doing their own work and bossing.

Although the air compressor down at the Hand has been giving them some trouble they have succeeded in keeping the mill running. The pieces for the worn parts of the compressor have been ordered which are expected in a few days, then things will move along without any further trouble it is hoped.

Choctaw Davis took out about a ton of ore on the Ivey and had it beat for a test, which realized him more than $22. This and the Fishtrap belong to northern capitalists and the results made by the native miners proves both to be valuable properties when operated by miners who understand the formation here.

But little headway has been made at the Cavender's Creek mine on account of the unfavorable weather. Mr. Wild, the superintendent, has been on the ground for some time arranging for the placing of the big crusher. Now that spring is here they will be enabled to move right along with their work. This is valuable property and we can expect to hear of good results if the mine is managed properly and we have every reason to believe that it will be.

The Crown Mountain pump broke again the other day causing

Repairing Neatly Done

Never thought of such a sign for a medicine did you? Well, it's a good sign for Scott's Emulsion. The body has to be repaired like other things and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine that does it.

These poor bodies wear out from worry, from over-work, from disease. They get thin and weak. Some of the new ones are not well made—and all of the old ones are racked from long usage.

Scott's Emulsion fixes all kinds. It does the work both inside and out. It makes soft bones hard, thin blood red, weak lungs strong, hollow places full. Only the best materials are used in the patching and the patches don't show through the new glow of health.

No one has to wait his turn. You can do it yourself—you and the bottle.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St. New York. 50c. and $1. all druggists.

another shut down until it could be repaired, which was done early as possible and the pump was set to running again on Tuesday afternoon, but how long it will continue cannot be told on account of the breaks being so frequent. This breaking and delay has caused its managers a good deal of trouble. It was the intermediate gear wheel that broke this time—a new one which had just been put in. It was understood that the pump company, which is liable for all these damages, would cast the new wheels of steel but they didn't do it. It has been clearly demonstrated that cast iron will not stand the very heavy strain that is on these wheels and it cannot be expected for this plant to run regularly until such changes are made, is our opinion. Later.—The wheel broke all to pieces on Wednesday. The pump company anticipated this trouble and made another which will be here next week. The mine shows up better than ever. Several nuggets were found last week.

J. M. Davis announces for sheriff in this weeks issue of the NUGGET. Mr. Davis is a good clever man and makes a splendid officer and will be hard to beat.

The council of Blue Ridge is forcing the citizens of that place to be vaccinated on account of the appearance of small pox there recently.

Chatten and most of the other cases from this county in the U. S. Court have been continued for the term, mostly on account of the court being behind with business about a week.

Hixs cold wave came promptly on schedule time last Monday and it turned colder until we had plenty of ice the next morning. Plenty of ice on the 18th of March is a nice thing for it keeps down those weeds that the almanac tells us to pull from the strawberry beds in February.

Last Monday Mrs. Blake, an aged widow lady of about 75 years of age, was outraged and then horribly murdered five miles south of Gainesville, Ga., by two drunken men named J. C. Stover and Charlie Purkle. They were both found lying down in the house near the corpse when arrested. They made no effort to escape and are now in Hall county jail. Mrs. Blakes clothing was torn and finger marks could be seen on her throat.

THE NUGGET

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 21, 1902.

Mr. M. G. Head is on a visit to Atlanta this week.

Green apples brought $1.50 per bushel here last Saturday.

Dr. Head made a flying trip to Atlanta first of the week.

A little child of Hiram Croan died out in Davis' district Sunday night.

Cicero Waters, a son of Rev. Samuel Waters, of Chastatee district, died Saturday night.

Geo. Jenkins held the forth in the absence of City Marshal Harrison in Atlanta first of the week.

J. H. Moore and B. R. Meaders & Sons have been selling goods by electric lights since the middle of the week.

Eggs have at last reached the 12 cents notch and after Easter they will get down to ten and country editors can afford to eat them.

Had Mayor Baker found out who it was that amused himself last Sunday by shooting his pistol down the mill road he would have remembered it a long time.

A little girl of H. L. Coffey, while handling a sharp hand axe last Sunday dropped it on one of her feet, cutting a deep gash which will require some time to heal up.

Mr. Frank Weaver and Miss Lucy Phillips, daughter of the Rev. Mr. Phillips, were wedded last Sunday. It was a runaway match and the wedding took place at the school house in Yahoola district by Rev. J. J. Shel. Success and happiness is our best wishes.

If every one having the small pox suffered with it as bad as young Odom of this county did they would be more careful. His finger nails came off and you can't put the head of a pin on his body. It is said, without striking a scar, he suffered dreadfully for weeks, almost causing his death.

We noticed Boyd Gurley's little seven-year-old boy out the other day placing onion sets in the rows the proper distance after they had been dropped by his father, same as if he had been an old gardener. Really better, because he was close to his work without having to stoop much and pain his back. Such as this is a great deal more beneficial than spinning tops, shooting air guns or riding bicycles.

Merchant McKee, who was down at his old home place in Dawson county a few days ago, says that they have a number of cases of small pox in that vicinity. Some are well of the disease while others are taking it. It is a very light form except in a few instances, causing the people to say that they had rather have the disease than to be vaccinated. The Sunday before three persons attended church while breaking out with it, and three new cases developed among the children of one school but they didn't suspend the school. They all go to the postoffice and stores at will. This is why the disease can't be stamped out down there.

Some of the blockaders of this county are playing the cat's paw on visitors to their places of business and causing them to suffer confinement in prison when really they had no intention of violating the law. For instance when a fellow goes round the distillery they will ask him to stir up the mash a little or chunk up the fire or do something else for them. And a man not thinking will do it. So by and by the owner of the distillery is caught up with. Then after he serves out his sentence (and some times before) he will report all these fellows who went there and complied with his request through kindness just to get to make a little money by appearing against them as witnesses, and the innocent parties go down and enter a plea of guilty in order to get out as light as possible, when really if the facts were known they would be released.

A pair of good young mules and a two horse wagon for sale by J. F. Moore.

There is a school boy in Dahlonega who was vaccinated in the leg, and in the arm in Atlanta before it had the desired effect.

The NUGGET is home print, all wool and a yard wide. If you wish a paper of this kind send in a dollar for a years subscription.

County School Commissioner Seabolt received this week about $600 for the teachers of this county, being their January Salary.

There is said to be parties residing in Dahlonega who report people for selling liquor just to get to go to Atlanta. This is cheap work.

Last week we had a series of religious services going on down at the Methodist church and two dances in town. Dahlonega is getting a move on her.

If we cannot prove that the NUGGET has had the largest circulation of any paper published in Dahlonega for the past 25 years we will not charge advertisers a single cent.

Some of the professors spending whole days in the woods during school hours hunting birds, causes some people to wonder if the trustees of the college can't reduce the number of teachers.

We have a nice line of rag, bond and linen envelopes at the NUGGET office which we can furnish you printed in good style very reasonable. Also the same kind of paper. Come to see us and examine our stock of stationery.

The other night a certain fellow got so full of popskull liquor that he vomited at the most convenient place. A lady's chickens got a scent of it and it killed three of them. The owner not knowing the cause thought they had the cholera.

Next Sunday week is Easter. Have you your eggs and nice white suits and pretty hats ready? Don't over do the thing now. Sometimes we have known people to spend the last dollar they had for stylish rigging and go to an almost empty table for several days afterwards.

Some time ago when we had a few cases of small pox in Dahlonega the Blue Ridge World stated that we were trying to keep it a secret so as not to injure the college here, (although the NUGGET was giving a weekly report of the matter). Now that they have the disease in Blue Ridge not one word has that paper said about it that we have seen.

Last Friday was Justices court day at Dahlonega and several cases were disposed of. When one of the cases was sounded, where a man had sued another, the plaintiff called the defendant out to one side and said in a whisper: "Let's compromise this case and go and take a drink." "All right," was the reply, and off they went, leaving the court and spectators wondering what it meant.

We had with us a few days last week W. D. Keck and his brother, two enterprising merchants of Greenville, Pa. These gentlemen have interests in the Crown Mountain mine and were down for the first time to see it, and apparently were very well pleased with the outlook. They left for Mercer last Sunday. We hope these gentlemen will return again in the near future and remain longer.

Last Sunday afternoon while the Methodist minister was conducting religious services at his church, listened to and assisted by a small congregation, some blockader was out down the Wimpy mill road working for the devil. He had quite a lot of liquor and was setting it to both black and white at 25 cents per pint as fast as he could measure it out, really attracting a larger crowd than the minister, for men could be seen going past with bottles and even buckets for a supply, and they were so greedy that some of them drank like water and later on men could be seen stretched out on the side of the road perfectly motionless as if they had just experienced a severe battle.

Some more houses to rent. Apply to M. J. Williams.

Doss Caldwell swore out a warrant for Bill Jones because he tried to cut him with a knife the other day at A. J. Edges.

Charlie Moore has gone home to do farm work and Howard Stanton is now acting in his place at J. H. Moores place of business.

A No. 8 Iron King cooking stove new, is worth $25. B. R. Meaders & Son have one in fair shape that they will sell for $8. Also two second hand show cases cheap.

In our account of the Caldwell sensation last week we got the given names of the Seabolt and Jarrard boys mixed. It should have been David Seabolt and John Jarrard.

J. B. Witt and family, of Dahlonega, left on a visit last Friday to relatives in Tennessee. We wish them a pleasant time and a safe return. Later.—They have returned all right.

Geo. Walker has a 10 cents piece dated 1820. It was picked up on the battlefield of Chickamauga, in Walker county, by Rob Long who is now in jail here which he found while scouting about before his arrest.

On our fourth page will be found the cases set for trial in the U. S. Court for the counties of Union and Dawson, beginning Monday. We didn't get our information time enough to give the earlier cases docketed.

It takes years of experience to estimate exactly what an ore is worth per ton by the colors obtained from a panning. Be not deceived. Have your ores assayed by Wharton Anderson, assayer, Calhoun Mine. Send for price list.

We understand that parties residing in Yahoola district, which was out off from the town district are fixing to rebuild their fences, as a recent decision of the Supreme Court has convinced them that these changes were not in accordance with law.

If we were the Methodist preacher instead of abusing and criticising his members we would act like jury revisors and throw out all incompetent persons. Then in order to get to "serve on the jury" in the house of the Lord they would begin to live up to the requirements of the church laws.

Last week several nice shade trees were set out on the public school lot by the pupils of that institution. It was right interesting to see the little fellows handle the necessary tools to accomplish the work. Prof. Martin and his able assistants have built up a splendid institution of learning and the people of Dahlonega point to it with pride.

We noticed last Friday several farmers of Union county returning home from Gainesville with guano, a distance of 45 miles. This is another strong evidence that the electric railroad now being constructed is badly needed to Dahlonega, so as to keep the tillers of the soil in the mountain counties from having to travel so far for their guano.

M. W. Gillispie, of Jewellville, Ga., in renewing his subscription to the NUGGET last week writes as follows: "My time is out to-morrow for the NUGGET and I can't well do without it, as I have lived in Lumpkin county seven years and know a lot of people there. It is like getting a letter every week. I like it because it tells the truth on all alike and that suits me."

David Dispaia of this county, who was bound over one day last week by Com. Baker, charged with violating the Internal revenue laws, was never in Dahlonega before in his life although he is 21 and his home is not more than 10 miles from the place. His first trip here last week was not as pleasant as he wished as he was carried in jail till the trial and then hurried down to Atlanta and put in prison. Won't he see sights though?

Sweet potatoes at T. S. Littlefield & Co's.

The railroad hands are now grading the Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric line near Price, Ga., says J. F. Moore, one of the directors. Work is being moved up as fast as possible.

Prof. Boyd and Mr. Wild, of the Cavender's Creek mine, were in the city last Saturday. Notwithstanding the day was dark and gloomy the appearance of these gentlemen made everything bright wherever they went.

T. J. Miller, of Auraria, informed us Monday that there are but few cases of small pox in Auraria district that he knows of. None of the Brackets at the old postoffice have taken the disease except Will yet. The office is being kept at Smith Bros. store temporarily.

Julius Roberts, Ed Blackstock and Nelson Goodlock were each fined two dollars and cost last Monday for disorderly conduct on Sunday. Jake Howell plead guilty and was only fined one and cost. There was said to be several other guilty ones but sufficient proof couldn't be had to convict.

G. H. McGuire has applied to the department for a patent on his new plow stock which he has recently invented. Mr. McGuire feels confident that he will make some money out of it as it is a good thing, something the farmers have been needing badly. The inventor uses to farm and he knows what he is doing.

Mr. Hughes Moore, of Dahlonega, was wedded last Sunday to Miss Estell, daughter of Mr. Jack Thompson, of Hall county. The happy marriage took place at the brides aunts, ceremony being performed by Rev. W. H. McAfee of Dahlonega. Their many friends extend congratulations and we wish for them a long life of much joy and prosperity.

The jury commissioners names who appear upon the record of this county are: W. H. Early, G. McGuire, Geo. W. Cochran, B. F. Satterfield, Jos. W. Christopher and W. G. Spencer. The jury box will be revised next August, but two appointments will be made by Judge Estes at the next term of court to wit: Some one of the list expired term of B. F. Satterfield and one to fill the vacancy of W. G. Spencer who never served after being appointed. We have known of men who desire to be appointed on the board to go to grand jurors and electioneers. This will be a thing of the past as Judge Estes fills these places without being dictated to by the grand jury. This is a good move and will stop so much little office seeking like this.

During a courtship of about two years Charlie Rice, aged close to 18, succeeded in ruining the youngest daughter of Mr. W. J. Lovelless, Miss Stella, of about sixteen or seventeen summers, residing at this place, causing Clyde, her brother, to swear out a warrant for Charlie last Friday night charging him with seduction and the defendant left out for parts unknown. Both are of good families and this sad and unfortunate affair is deeply regretted by all. It has caused the parents of both to drop their heads in sorrow in their declining years and brought about grief which will be carried by them to their graves, besides casting a gloom of sorrow to the households of the relatives of both these young people, saying nothing of the misery, woe and distress that is in store for them. But all this can be remedied yet, provided Charlie will return and take this little motherless girl and say to the one he has so often told that he dearly loved that he will not forsake her in time of distress but will take her as his wife and love, protect and cherish her until death. Such an act as this would be commended by every citizen of Dahlonega and raise this great cloud of sorrow from this great troubled household and let in sunshine, joy, prosperity and happiness.

Mr. W. B. Odom and Miss Adie, daughter of Mr. Rams Davis, were wedded in this county last Monday by Esquire C. B. Odom. Success to both.

The disease the little boy had, at Mrs. Howells is not scarlet fever. The boy has a sore throat and breaking out often somewhat resembling scarlet fever and Dr. Head didn't know it, and was perfectly justifiable in causing the premises to be quarantined until further developments.

This week Matthew McDonald, who is serving out a two years sentence in the Tennessee penitentiary for breaking into Wier post office of this county, was brought into court in Atlanta last week to testify against John Chatten, charged with same offense but he would not answer the questions and the Judge was powerless to punish him for not doing it.

Just received a complete line of childrens shoes and hose. Also a large line of pants. We again call your attention to our great bargains in the following goods: Best cotton checks 54, good yard wide seaisland 5, best drilling 64. Simons' Liver Regulator 15 cents per package. 12 1/2 pounds good green coffee for $1.00. Also fresh chocolates, grated coconuts, Postum Cereal, Pettijohn, Quaker oats, ten, fancy crackers and candies. Garden seeds, seed Irish potatoes, etc. PRICE & REESE.

We are informed that little Billy Signal is going to name his baby Estill, after the distinguished gentleman who is a candidate for governor. If he does it will beat Col. Estill in this county. It won't do to name children after great men with the expectation of accomplishing any good for either party. We were named after Benjamin Franklin. The old man is still in his grave and we have had the seven years itch twice and take the grip every season, and it always hurts as just as bad and causes us to yell just as loud after eating green peaches as if we had been called Peter Plug Ugly.

J. D. Southard, while on his way last Tuesday to his new home near Flowery Branch, lost his satchel containing $215 in greenbacks and about nine hundred dollars in notes. He and his wife got out at the foot of the hill the other side of Polk Heads, on the Neisler Ford road to walk a piece, carrying his grip in his hand. Six miles beyond he missed his grip and money and returned to see if he had set it down when assisting his wife into the wagon. That is the last he remembered seeing at it and if he did some one had picked it up. Mr. Southard was aiming to make the first payment of $200 on his land the next day and the other $75 was to bear his expenses down. This was hard earned money and is a heavy loss to the gentleman, but we hope that he may yet recover it.

Last Tuesday afternoon it was right interesting to see how fast Choctaw Davis was coming up college street. A fellow was just at his heels who lives where there is thought to be a case of scarlet fever. Choctaw is too old to take the disease himself but he didn't want to come in contact with the man for fear of giving it to his children on his clothing. The wind was blowing and his long tail over coat stuck out behind. Mr. Davis is a candidate and can't afford to make any body mad. So he grabbed his flying coat tail with both hands and held it down the best he could and made quick step for Frank Moore's store, the man right after him. Upon reaching the place he didn't take time to go to front but stepped up on a two foot rock wall and was soon in the store with the heating stove between him and his friend looking pale but considerably relieved of his uncomfortable condition. So if you see Choctaw with a cropped coat tail you may know that he thought it struck the fellow and got it off so as not to endanger the folks at home. He's right for a "shod tailed coat" is much preferable any time to a case of scarlet fever.

The series of meetings at the Methodist church have not closed yet. The minister has succeeded in getting the merchants to close their stores every afternoon at 6:30 o'clock beginning last Monday causing some faces to appear in church for the first time in years. There is being many good sermons delivered but what effect they will have cannot be told yet.

A mortar and pestle was seen in operation last Sunday on the Consolidated Co's property beyond the public school house. Persons wishing to prospect on Sunday should go farther from town than this, or they will be caught up with nearly every time and stand a chance of being prosecuted.

A nice lot of embroidery, lace, duck, white lawn and India linen will be received first of next week by B. R. Meaders & Sons, who are now selling white beans at 4 cents, headless white fish 7 1/2 to close. Leather haulters 48 cents. Also a nice line of summer shoes will arrive next week. Don't fail to see them before you purchase your shoes.

In a recent issue of the Wesleyan Christian Advocate appears an article from the pen of G. R. Brighton, of Madison, Ga., headed "The mountaineer and his needs," telling about the "one room huts, built of logs, cracks daubed with mud to keep out the cold, chimneys made of sticks, dirt mixed in to make it stick together. Every poor family, whether large or small, cook, eat and sleep in this one room. Their chief food being corn bread, occasionally a slice of commonest bacon. The women doing most of the work while the men still. The nearest market is Gainesville where they carry their walnuts, berries, etc., and receive from $3 to $5 for it." And the writer adds, "if they loved the Christ don't you know that He would lead them into a better means of seeking a livelihood." Besides saying "he was told by a gentleman who mixed and mingled with these people that he passed one of these 4x8 huts one night and upon entering found 20 people in this one room; no bed, no room for one, not a knife, fork or spoon with which to eat with. On the fire was an oven in which corn bread had been cooked. Those of the inmates who were not asleep were sitting over the oven eating out of it." And many more like the most of the above. This article was noticed by Col. Fletcher Johnson, of Gainesville, who replied in a long article in the same paper defending the mountaineers most ably, a copy of which was sent us. Not being a subscriber to the Advocate the article escaped our notice until last week, and it is rather late to reply to Mr. Brighton. But will say that we are surprised in seeing so many false statements appearing in a religious newspaper. It is true that some live in log houses and eat common diet and among them are distillers but their chances are just as good for heaven as if they resided in fine brick mansions and enjoyed city life. Really we had rather take their chances than those who lie about them in newspapers. You need not fret. The Creator is a just one and He will not forsake these people in the mountains because they live in daubed houses.

Always as Young as You Feel.

People grow old by thinking themselves old. When they reach the age of forty, fifty or sixty they imagine that they look like others of the same age, and that, they soon will be useless, unfit for work and unable to perform their wonted duties. As surely as they think this it will come true, for thought is creative. How many of us can say, with Job, "The thing which I greatly feared is come upon me." The time will come when children will not be allowed to celebrate their birthdays; when they will know that by thinking themselves young, they will remain young, and that they will cease to grow old when they cease to believe in old age. The body is built up of beliefs, and our convictions are stamped upon every fiber of our beings. What we believe, what we think, that we are; so people who remain young in spite never grow old. Not one of a hundred students, of whom the writer was one, under Oliver Wendell Holmes at Harvard, ever thought of him as an old man, although he had then passed his eightieth birthday. His spirit was so young, and he was so buoyant, so fresh and full of life that we always thought of him as one of ourselves. His vivacity and joyousness were contagious. You could not be in his presence five minutes without feeling brighter for it. The genial doctor never practiced medicine, yet he did more to relieve human suffering than many practicing physicians. His presence was a tonic; it was a perpetual delight to be near him.—Success.

Able to Prove Widowhood.

A convict at a French penal settlement desired to marry a female convict, such marriages being of common occurrence. The governor of the colony offered no objection but the prisoner proceeded to examine the prisoner.

"Did you not marry in France?"

He asked.

"Yes."

"And your wife is dead?"

"She is."

"Have you any documents to show she is dead?"

"No."

"Then I must decline to marry you. You must produce proof that your wife is dead."

There was a pause, and the bride prospective looked at the would be groom.

Finally he said:

"I can prove that my former wife is dead."

"How will you do so?"

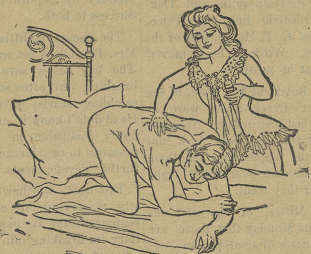

"I was sent here for killing her."

The bride accepted him notwithstanding.—Edinburg Scotsman.

A man who is too stingy to take his home paper would drink sassafras tea until he became so thin he wouldn't make a shadow. He would fill himself up with hot water and then try to cheat himself into the belief that he had eaten a square meal.—Acworth Post.

The Use of an Enemy.

Always keep an enemy on hand, a brisk, hearty, active enemy. For the having one is proof that you are somebody. Wishy-washy, empty, worthless people never have enemies. Men who never move, never run against anything, and when a man is thoroughly dead and utterly buried nothing ever runs against him. To be against is proof of existence and position; to run against something is proof of motion.

True, an enemy is not partial to you. He will not flatter you. He will not exaggerate your virtues. It is very probable that he will slightly magnify your faults. The benefit of that is twofold; it permits you to know that you have faults, and are, therefore not an angel, and it makes them of such size as to be visible and manageable. Of course, if you have a fault you desire to know it; when you become aware that you have a fault you desire to correct it. Your enemy does for you this valuable work which your friend cannot perform.

Largest Blanket Sheet.

The largest newspaper ever printed in America was the Illuminated Quadruple Constellation, published in New York July 4, 1853. It was 8 feet by 8 feet 4 inches in size, four pages to a side. A copy of it is now owned by John S. Jones, the veteran editor of the Westporter-Herald of Westport, Conn.

Each page of this mammoth paper has thirteen columns. The length of the columns is forty-eight inches. The paper weighed 300 pounds to a ream and cost $60 a ream—twelve times more than a ream of Herald, Times or Tribune paper cost at that time.

The weight of the paper required for the limited edition of 28,000 copies was equal to that required for more than 200,000 of the Times or The Herald. To produce the mastodon paper it required eight weeks of unceasing labor of nearly forty persons.

To be a Christian.

To be a Christian is not merely to be good, but to be good for something. To be a Christian is not merely to join the church, but to become associated with the people of God for service, so as to both receive good and do good. To be a Christian is not merely to make a profession of faith in Christ, but to be born anew into the life, power, and spirit of His Kingdom. To be a Christian does not necessarily imply freedom from doubts, but it does imply exercising that living faith in Christ, which in due time, triumphs over doubts. Nicodemus and Thomas had their doubts, but by coming to Christ and clinging to Him, they achieved a complete victory over them all. To be a Christian is not necessarily to be sure that you are right, and that those who differ with you are wrong; but it is to be very certain that you do believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and strive honestly to know and do his will.—Ex.

City Weekly is Passing.

The weekly edition of the big daily is passing. The New York Herald discontinued its weekly several years ago. The New York Weekly Tribune, which was once considered indispensable in so many homes, is gone, and the publishers are trying to establish in its place a literary weekly and an agricultural paper. There is but one answer to the cause of its displacement in the homes, maintains pointers. The county paper has so improved that it contains all the Tribune furnished and the local news besides. The ideal county weekly to-day is a better home paper than the Tribune ever was. The main reason for this is the fine class of miscellaneous reading.—Selected.

The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, has a depressing effect, and soon headache, backache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. Such was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweinhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says: "An attack of pneumonia left me with muscular rheumatism, headache, and pains that seemed to be all over me. I was scarcely able to move for about a month when I decided to try Miles' Pain Pills. Sold by all Druggists. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind."

Horses in Battle.

One of the most curious sights to be seen in a cavalry charge is the various riderless horses galloping in the line in perfect order. At the charge of Balaklava the front rank of one regiment was composed to a great extent of riderless animals, their masters having dropped one by one. It would seem that in the excitement of the moment the horses lose all conception of what is happening around them and probably fall to notice the fall of their riders.

The return or riderless horses to camp is an almost certain sign of defeat. When a cavalry charge is successful, the horses will, as I have said, all keep up together, even though they have lost their riders, when a force is routed the first news of illomen to those in the rear will be the return of the horses with empty saddles and stirrups dangling free. No more sorry sight can be imagined. To illustrate the callous feeling these animals have under fire a case which happened at Ladysmith during the siege may be cited. A farrier sergeant was engaged in shoeing an officer's horse in the open ground behind the stables and had already put one or two nails into the shoe when a shell came screaming through the air, the next moment the missile burst five or six yards away from where the sergeant and the horse were standing, and the splinters flew around both, but failed to touch either. When the smoke had cleared, the horse was to be seen with its foot still in the man's apron, quite undisturbed by the incident.—Pearson's Magazine.

Tramp's New Scheme.

The hoboes who wander up and down the highways in Kansas have invented a plan that furnishes them the best living possible. One of the promoters of the scheme went to a hotel man in the state not long since and represented that he was an employee of a railroad company and was working on the section near the town. He made arrangements to board at the hotel until he had received his first check.

He was given a good room and plenty to eat. Every day his dinner pail which the landlord had bought for him, was filled in the morning, and he went down the track to work as it was supposed. He boarded at the hotel for two weeks and one morning left and never returned. He took the dinner pail along. Investigation proved that he had never worked on the section and the only work which he performed which left any visible results was on the credulity of the hotel keeper.

Morals of The Child.

The moral development of the child begins almost as soon as its mental, and the two march hand in hand. The home is the place where correct moral principles should be first instilled in the mind of the child, and neglect of this may mean endless suffering for parents and child. Too often this is left to the servants, relatives, or the teacher later. The parent who can neglect this side of the child's development, and trust to somebody else, is not worthy of the responsibility that has been conferred upon her. The neglect is not altogether intentional, but more often due to lack of energy and forethought. The work does not begin early enough, and the little mind gets wrapped before the lessons are taught.

Magnificent Revenge.

While Robert Stewart was governor of Missouri a steamboat man was brought in from the penitentiary as an applicant for a pardon. He was a large powerful fellow, and when the governor looked at him he seemed strangely affected. He scrutinized him long and closely. Before he handed it to him he said: "You will commit some other crime and be in the penitentiary again, I fear."

The man solemnly promised that he would not. The governor looked doubtful, mused a few minutes and said:

"You will go back on the river and be a mate again, I suppose?" The man replied that he would. "Well, I want you to promise me one thing," resumed the governor. "I want you to pledge your word that when you are a mate again you will never take a bill of wood in your hand and drive a sick boy out of bunk to help you load a boat on a stormy night."

The steamboat man said he would not and inquired what the governor meant by asking him such a question.

The governor replied: "Because some day he may become a governor, and you may want him to pardon you for a crime. One dark stormy night, many years ago, you stopped your boat on the Mississippi river to take on a load of wood. There was a boy on board who was working his passage from New Orleans to St. Louis, but he was very sick with fever and lying in a bunk. You had plenty of men to do the work, but you went to that boy with a sick of wood in your hand and drove him with blows and curses out into the wretched night and kept him toiling like a slave until the load was completed. I was that boy. Here is your pardon. Never be guilty of such brutality again."

The man, cowering and hiding his face, went out without a word. What a noble revenge that was and what a lesson to a bully!—Success.

Will He Get Jim.

"I see Mr. Editor," says the Presiding Elder "that you make serious charges in your paper about Church members renting their property to saloon-keepers and houses of ill-fame. I would have a member turned out of the Church who would do it, or leave the Church myself. Give me the name of a single one."

"You're my man," says the Editor. "Did you you ever hear of Collins street?"

"Yes," replied the Presiding Elder.

"Well, my good brother," says the Editor "Jim Collins owns houses on Collins street—the most notorious houses of prostitution in Atlanta and Jim is a member of your church. Now turn Jim out and when you get through with Jim take a trip to Madison street and ascertain who for years owned the principal prostitute property on that street then come back to us and we will cite you to all the cases you can attend to from now until next conference."

The above is the conversation between the Presiding Elder and our Editor which transpired in one of our churches last Sunday. We wonder what will be the outcome of it?—Southern Star.

"I Gave Them Myself."

Said a mother to me one day: "When my children were young I thought the very best thing I could do for them was to give them myself. So I spared no pains to talk with them, to read to them, be loving companion and friend to my children. I had to neglect my house often. I was so busy adorning their minds and cultivating their hearts' best affections that I could not adorn their bodies in fine clothes, though I kept them neat and comfortable at all times. I have my reward now. My sons are ministers of the gospel; my grown-up daughter is a Christian woman. I have plenty of time to keep my house in order, plenty of time to indulge myself, besides going about my Master's business whenever He has need for me."

I have a thousand beautiful memories of their childhood to comfort me. Now that I have gone out into the world, I have the sweet consciousness of having done all I could to make them ready for whatever work God calls them to do."

The Telephone.

It has not been many years since a noted scientist, in an exhaustive article, satisfied himself and thousands of others that the telephone could never be brought into practical use. Today it is estimated there are 2,278,000 telephones in use in the United States alone. No man attempts to do business now without the aid of the 'phone. Business is transacted over the telephone although the parties are separated by thousands of miles. The home and the office are brought together by means of the telephone. These instruments have now invaded the country districts, and the telephone and the free delivery of mail are going hand in hand. Here in Ohio thousands of farmers have the telephone in their homes, and they find it of immense advantage in a business and social way, and yet the telephone is not many years old.—Toledo Blade.

Had Garnered Many Pennies.

A Chicago saloon man who has saved the pennies which have been dropped into his till with other money during the past two years deposited 65,000 of them in the bank recently, says The Union Signal. Who can estimate the misery and grief involved in each one of those pennies? None but the drunkard's wife and the drunkard's child, who were thus deprived of their share of food and warmth and love.

Woman.

Nobody who ever loves a woman ever asks himself why he loves her he doesn't care why.

Some women are happiest when they are miserable, but just to be unhappy they'll quit being miserable sometimes.

Tell a girl she's pretty, and she will like it, but will not be sure you are in earnest. Tell her she is prettier than some girl she knows is pretty, and you've got her.—New York Press.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MARCH 28, 1902.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Athens had a $100,000 fire last week by a truck igniting a barn. 21,000 bales of cotton were burned.

The school at Jefferson was suspended last week on account of one of the pupils breaking out with the small pox.

In Atlanta because a merchant posted a sign "Don't Credit John Dunn." He won't pay," has caused him to sue the merchant for $1,500 damages.

The ordinary of Carroll county has been sued for $500 because he issued marriage license for the marriage of a girl under eighteen years of age.

It is claimed that several of the members of the church of Atlanta own saloon buildings in that city. This is a bad light for church members to shine.

Goy. Candler has offered a reward of $150 for the first and $100 for each subsequent person caught who has been terrorizing the negroes in Pickens county.

Judge Emory Speer sentenced E. G. Griggs to the new federal prison in Atlanta last week for a term of four years for counterfeiting. Griggs has the honor of being the first prisoner sentenced to this new prison.

Lightning struck Dr. Cavender's house a few nights ago over in the edge of Hall county doing considerable damage. It struck a large picture in the parlor over the mantle, and burst it all to pieces, setting some grasses afire that were on the mantle. The Doctor extinguished the fire before any great damage was done. None of the inmates were harmed.

Last week the Jackson County Herald in fourteen words announced the death of a lady in that county, and in the same issue copied an article from the Macon Telegraph, telling about Judge Speer's dead horse, requiring two long columns in relating what a noble animal had passed away. The horse belonged to a rich man and the lady, we judge, was a poor woman.

Some of the temperance members in Dahlonega have organized a Guerry club. It is the first time these people have ever done a thing of this kind. Heretofore they have been going down to the church once a month and singing and telling the dangers of intoxicants but when election day came every one was turned loose to vote for who he pleased. This move will cause Mr. Guerry to get a right good vote here.

The gubernatorial election is beginning to live up a little in this county after so long a time which will go for Mr. Terrell unless there is a considerable change, because he is personally known by many of our leading citizens and has always been in the ring. Nevertheless this does not change us in the least. We are going to vote for Mr. Estill, the printer, as it is natural for birds of feathers to flock together.

Right this way with your missionary money. Down at Topeka, Ga., the other day Jim Swiny, col., got tired of feeding his family and boiled one of his children to death in a can of hot red peppered water. Another was put in the vessel. Some one came along and pulled it out but it died soon afterwards. Now this negro is in jail where he will be kept safely guarded till court passes upon his case. If his attorneys do not succeed in getting him into the asylum he will be sentenced to hang after a long delay probably, and before executed he will make a talk and tell the people that he is right off for heaven. It cost a county a thousand dollars some times to get negro murderers off to heaven!

A woman embezzler of $15,000 in Philadelphia was caught in Atlanta the other day.

The damage to Inman & Co's shoe factory in Gainesville the other night is estimated to be $20,000.

The leader of the salvation army who came to Atlanta some time ago to save a thousand souls before he left is still in that city.

John Prewitt, of Forsyth county drank enough of Atlanta liquor the other day to cause him to take his fight to that unknown world.

At Manilla Major Waller and Lieut. Day are being tried for binding eleven natives and having a bullet a day fired into them until the prisoners died.

The editor of the Blue Ridge Post is for Rev. A. J. Beck for state school commissioner and thinks that Fannin county will be in the Beck column.

A special term of Hall county Superior Court has been ordered by Judge Estes on the first Monday in April to try Stover and Pirkle for the crime of killing Mrs. Blake in that county recently.

Neither Judge Jones of Toconoco Col. Perry of Gainesville, will run for Judge of the northeastern circuit. So this leaves Judge Kinsey alone in the field and his many friends throughout the circuit rejoice.

The Journal is going to send twelve of Atlanta's policemen to the Charleston exposition. From the way people are being knocked down and robbed in Atlanta it looks as if these policemen were needed worse in that city than in Charleston.

After wearing pants thirty-five years and living as a husband and head of a family, the death of Miss Green in Chesterfield county, Va., revealed the fact that the supposed man was a woman. This is the first time upon record where a woman has been known to keep a secret this long.

John Peabody, a negro convicted of murder in Dooly county, was hanged last Friday, after being respited for thirty days in order that he might testify for the state in other cases. No doubt the negro made a good witness thinking that his sentence would be commuted to life imprisonment.

Three Ingram boys, of Gaddistown, created a lot of amusement at the depot here last Monday. It seems that one of them was going west, and one of the stay-at-home boys was overcome with grief, on account of the departure of his grief with great energy, and was wanting to lick Bill Lackey for exploiting his rebuffs at the scene, when Marshal Findley intervened and notified the young man that it was not orderly to weep so noisily in town. Isn't it a shame that a man can't weep when his brother is going west?—Blue Ridge World.

G. W. McCallie, assistant state geologist, in speaking of the pyrite mine in Lumpkin county, says: "Pyrite, an iron sulphide employed in the manufacture of sulphuric acid, is widely distributed throughout Georgia. Probably one of the most important deposits of this mineral known at present in the state, occurs in the eastern part of Lumpkin county, on Chestate River, about six miles northeast of Dahlonega. This deposit is quite extensive and the ore is of good quality. The commercial value of the deposit has long been known, but the great expense of hauling the ore by wagon to Gainesville, the nearest railway station, twenty miles distant, renders the mining of the ore unprofitable." This is another evidence of the importance of a railroad being built to Dahlonega, which would cause many other industries to spring up if we had a railroad that are now idle.

Notice Dissolution. Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between D. Howell and J. T. Miller, under the name of D. Howell & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. D. HOWELL. This March 28, 1902.

A negro was lynched the other night at La Junta, Col., by 4000 citizens for assaulting an old white lady.

Our friend and patron A. J. Anderson, near the edge of Dawson county, is nursing a severe case of small pox now.

Hon. Dupont Guerry came to Gainesville to speak last Tuesday but there was no one to hear him and he went away very much disappointed.

C. S. Meaders, Commander of Camp Martin No. 964, took the census of his camp at Wrightville the other day and found 69 out of 68 for Estill for governor.

A white woman while on a spree Saturday night in Atlanta was carried to the police barracks in a cab. Had they rolled her in the wheelbarrow used for men it might have made a sober woman of her.

Your attention is directed to the announcement of J. M. Brooksher in this issue who is a candidate for sheriff. Mr. Brooksher has served the people in this capacity before and always performed his duties well and faithfully.

From what the Waynesboro True Citizen says the game law is being enforced down that way. The other day a man with 25 crates of partridges was arrested and tried, who was fined $100 and his birds all turned loose.

It is claimed that Mrs. Birdsell, of Philadelphia, who stole $15,000, has $10,000 worth of dogs. She kept them in rooms and they slept on beds with fine white counterpanes, and ate from costly China plates, while their owner lived almost like a pauper.

Mayor Parker of Topeka, Kansas, was ravished in his office one day last week by Miss Boise, another crazy woman on the subject of temperance, because he allows "joints" to run in that city. Such as this may work in Kansas but it wouldn't in Georgia without some one getting hurt, woman or no woman.

A convict named East made his escape from the new federal prison in Atlanta one day last week by crawling through a defective iron barred window in the basement where he followed the barbers trade. He was assigned for 15 years for burglary committed in the Indian Territory. A reward of $50 is offered for his arrest.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference. Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.

All who are indebted to Anderson & Jones either by note or account will please come forward and settle at once. We positively cannot carry them any longer. Don't stay at home and think we are joking and pay a bill of cost. 21. ANDERSON & JONES.

Work begun at the Dunlap Shoals, on the Chattahoochee river, last Friday morning by the Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric Railway Company. Quarries on either side of the river are being opened up, and excavations are being made for the foundation of the dam. The large boilers are already on the grounds, and the hoisting machinery, which was ordered some time ago, is expected to arrive any day. About fifteen hands are now engaged at this work, and this force will be greatly increased, after the arrival of necessary machinery with which to get out the rock. Steam drills will be used and the work will progress with the greatest degree of rapidity. The dam will be made of solid granite, and will cost a large sum of money.—Eagle.

"The South Carolina and Interstate and West Indian Exposition will be held in the city of Charleston from December 1st, 1901, to June 1st, 1902. There is no place on this continent where the climatic conditions are so favorable for a Mid-Winter Exposition.

Out-of-door life in Charleston during the winter season is a perpetual bloom. Flowers bloom in the open gardens throughout the year, and a bowl of roses on the Christmas dinner table is not an unusual sight.

Miss Myra Caldwell, a daughter of Rev. Wash Caldwell, of this county, was married last Sunday to a Mr. Bramlett, of Nelson, Ga., by Esquire W. A. White.

Quite a number of horse traders called Gypsies, camped up at the Mahew place and their pretty wagons and girls attracted much attention till they left.

You will see in this issue the announcement of R. H. Webb for county treasury. Mr. Webb is known to the most of you as being a deserving man and one who is fully qualified to fill the office for which he asks.

Now since some of the ladies have become too religious to churn their milk on Sunday we are at a loss to know what to do with the eggs our hens laid on last Sunday. Shall we eat them or throw them away?

Some of our most enterprising citizens talk of forming a company for the purpose of purchasing lands and setting out a large apple orchard in this county. Apple raising is no experiment, and those owning orchards are making big money.

Dried beans are more plentiful in this section than they have been for many years before. The market here and even below is crowded. No longer than last Saturday we saw a Union county farmer returning home from Grimesville with his load of beans, being unable to sell them.

The series of meetings and organization of a Quarry club has no effect on the blockaders. They come and go to Dahlonega just the same, finding a ready sale for their production. Two different parties came in last Saturday night with liquor. One located near Yahoola bridge and the other near Last Chance.

Although there are a few cases of small pox and scarlet fever in the county we guess the Superior Court will be held at its regular time and the diseases given a good chance to spread. The solicitor and other lawyers have all been vaccinated and are ready to stand the storm as far as the small pox is concerned but there is no preventative for the scarlet fever.

As some parties residing out in the country and laboring in town have made an effort to get out of working the roads at home, claiming that they have worked the streets here we will state that the law does not allow this. The ordinance requires a street tax only of those liable for road duty who live within the corporate limits or make this their place to abide.

W. P. Price, Jr., visited Athens this week.

As stated a few weeks ago Dr. Howard has got so he can visit town, but his eye sight is worse. He can't get about now without some one to guide him.

After the Ashley boiler has been delayed near Dahlonega about a month on account of the bad roads they started with it again to Dawson county last Tuesday. Later, suspended on account of rain today.

The pretties coat and pants suits ever brought to Dahlonega are at Anderson & Jones and are from one to eight dollars cheaper per suit than other peoples. Low prices always explain why we lead the clothing trade.

ANDERSON & JONES.

The late continuous cold weather will cause us to have plenty of peaches. But this brings about trouble, because the blockaders will still them up, sell and drink the brandy and get into prison, leaving their families to suffer sometimes.

We are continuing to sell best cotton checks at 54 cents per yard. Best drilling 64. Also Simmons Loyer Regulator 15 cents per pack and green coffee 12 1/2 pounds for $1.00. Just received a barrel of that pure Kentucky Ball apple vinegar.

PRICE & REESE.

N. M. Pierce, of Suwannee, who used to go to college in Dahlonega, in subscribing to the Nugget last week writes: "Please find 50 cents for six months subscription to the NUGGET. I was a reader of the NUGGET while in school at Dahlonega and have never since read a paper equal to it."

Mrs. Strickland returned from Atlanta last week where she had been to lay in her spring millinery. A very nice line. Call and examine. Miss Florence McAfee will assist Mrs. Strickland again this season. There is no use to send off for your millinery goods when you can get them right here. Prices reasonable.

L. K. Donavin, of Columbus, O., and A. D. Hance, of Piqua, O., were among the northern visitors here last week, the latter gentleman paying our office a pleasant call on Friday. Both gentlemen own stock in the Crown Mountain Gold Mining Co., and feel confident that it will be a success as soon as the pump is put in good shape.

When subscribing or renewing your subscription to the NUGGET those at a distance will please examine their dates and see if they are correct. Some times mistakes occur, why we call attention to this. Then it is very important so you will know when your time will expire and send in another dollar if you wish the paper to continue visiting you.

The other day we received 50 cents from a gentleman from the north who stated that he would take the NUGGET on trial. This caused our mind to wander way back many years ago to those good old times when people were taken into the church on probation, which ought to be done yet. It's best. You see now we will act pretty and behave nicely in order to gain that gentleman's confidence.

W. G. Campbell has moved back from Cleveland.

The vegetable and flower gardens have been receiving special attention here this week.

You will see the candidates names under the proper heading in this issue, being all we know of running for certain.

Solicitor General Charters and stenographer Swain left last Sunday to attend the Superior Court at Hiwassee and at Blairsville this week—three days at each place.

Mrs. Minney, sister of Messrs. Paul and Lee Soseby, died in Pickens county last week. Paul went at once to attend the funeral but his brothers health was too feeble for him to go.

The editor of the NUGGET does not button hole any one in order to gain or keep his or her friendship. We give the news as it occurs without any whitewashing. If that is the kind of a paper you want send m. If not keep your money.

Under a city ordinance nothing can be bought in Dahlonega on Sunday except temperance drinks and medicine. So when a person wants any thing sweet they have to enquire for "medical" candy which makes it very embarrassing sometimes to young men.

Nothing is so valuable to a community as a good school and every citizen should be interested in the upbuilding of one. Such institutions we have right here in Dahlonega, but still there are children and older persons idling away their time who could well attend them every day but do not do it.

A couple of blockaders from Fannin county had luck Saturday night. One got in jail and the other lost a half a keg of liquor, besides coming near being caught himself. It was reported that the liquor was at a certain house near the cemetery which caused lovers of the juice to go out in great droves. Among them were church members but nearly all were disappointed as the capturing of one by Marshal Grizzle caused the other to get scared and move his place of business and loose the biggest portion of his liquor, causing the one getting it to be unable to attend church the next day.

The members of the colored Baptist church make each other walk the chalk line and toe the scriptural mark as much as possible, being more prompt in handling those who violate the church laws than the white people. Last Saturday was conference day with them and some four or five were booked for trial, but only one name was erased from the church book. She had stumbled and fell a terrible fall from grace. The trials of the others were postponed until the next regular meeting.

Among the defendants was Harve Anderson, one of the main pillars of the church, who had been to a dance and made a call on a lady of his color at another time. While sitting in a room cross legged one night with "meeting house drops" all over his clothing from head to foot, and wearing a smile as big as a broad axe, conversing about religious matters, looking as though he would explode from joy and happiness, and just as the woman of his heart had ended the sentence of "Brother Anderson, death knocks on every ones door," in a voice as soft and mellow as a ripe June apple, Harve's wife, on the outside, replied loud enough to be heard by the neighbors all around, "Yes, and I'll knock on your door," and in she came. In a shorter time than it takes to tell it Harve's shirt was tore into strings and then the enraged wife lit in on the woman and when she got through all her barbs that were not pulled out were in their original state.

Mr. Johnnie Gaddis and Miss T. Rider, a daughter of Joseph Rider, were married last Sunday. All of this county.

The last acts of the legislature have been received at the ordinary's office and all officials entitled to them are notified to come forward and get them.

Last Monday Miss Mattie Phillips was fined five dollars and cost by Mayor Baker for hitting Mrs. Coffey with a rock as she was passing along the road.

FOR SALE.—A nice well finished three room house together with half acre lot in Dahlonega. Also a forty acre lot including the mill race within a mile of Dahlonega. Apply to James Phillips, Dahlonega, Ga.

The annual Field Day exercises at the N. G. A. College will be held on the drill field Tuesday. The Athletic exercises will begin at 9 a. m. A game of base ball will be played in the afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Last Saturday night while Tom Smith of Fannin county, was over here with a little liquor for medical purposes, so it is reported, together with a friend, Deputy Marshal Grizzle executed an old warrant he had against him and put the man in jail.

We don't care how many series of meetings you may have or how long they last it will have no effect on a scolding wife. To see one out she can scarcely keep her hands off of her husband, looking as if sugar wouldn't melt in her mouth, but when they return home he is in hot water all the time with her tongue rattling as if it was tied in the middle and loose at both ends.

At no time during the series of religious services do we understand, has any minister been to see Rob Long who is confined in the jail of this county charged with murder, really not since his incarceration. It looks to us like this would be the very place for some of them to visit instead of giving so many of those running at large so much attention. Rob is not in a condition to pay any thing but it is just as important for them to try to save his soul as any body else.

Last Friday Rev. Samuel Waters lost the most of the household goods he possessed. His son having died a few days previous some of the neighbor ladies went and carried every thing out of the house so as to clean out the premises and wash up the things, and while they were piled up near the wash place they caught fire and were destroyed. A number of the citizens here contributed something to his wants last Monday. The service was brought to town by Levi Crow, who solicited the aid, but other citizens seen from that district since know nothing about the reported accident.

The beautiful spring has come, causing joy and happiness throughout the land. The birds are singing, the frogs are hallowing, the hens are cackling, the roosters are crowing with delight and the children are jumping and playing about full of joy and pleasure. This is the happiest season on earth for children especially, when they can get out into the woods, girls hunting flowers and the boys making whips and whistles. Oh, that we could call back our boyhood days. How appropriate are the following lines penned by Zeb Vance: How dear to my heart are the pants of my childhood When fond recollection presents them to view.

The pants that I wore in the deep tangled wildwood, And likewise, the groves where the crab apple grew. The wide spreading seat with its little square patches, The pockets that bulged with my luncheon for noon, And likewise, with marbles and fish worms and matches, And kite strings and gum drops from March until June. The little patched trousers, the made over trousers, The high water trousers that fit me too soon.

Later.—Spring has gone back on us and we are having a cold east rain now.

At B. R. Meaders & Sons you will find a $80 sewing machine for $18. Also wall paper for all.

The sign of Hall's Villa will be changed to Hotel. This popular house has been run by R. C. Thomson for some time and is well patronized.

Last Tuesday Capt. J. W. Wood, ward received a telephone message from Gainesville stating that his mother had suddenly taken sick and was not expected to live. The Captain left for the city that night.

The bridge of friendship between the Signal and NUGGET editors has been repaired again. How long it will be so we can't tell. If it doesn't stay with us along the religion some people get, or think they get, it is not worth seeking after.

Our clever friend and neighbor to the office, Mr. Love, decided to go to batching last week, which is a little new to him and the first morning he forgot to grease the flour and baked the bread so hard that he had to cut it out of the skillet with a mallet and chisel.

Last Tuesday after a witness had sworn against Tom Smith of Fannin county, who is charged with illicit distilling, the defendant said that he had sworn the truth, but was as guilty as he was, for he had hired him to work in the distillery, and when he got to Atlanta would swear out a warrant for the witness. This is the way those making or handling liquor get into it.

We have the biggest line of ladies, childrens and mens shoes that we have ever carried. Some cheap enough for the poorest and some good enough for the finest but at cut prices. A nice lot of Easter eggs, cards and booklets just received. Don't fail to examine our stock before you buy anything for which you pay cash as we can save you 25 cents on almost every dollar you spend.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

On Wednesday Miss Mattie Moore of Dahlonega, and Mr. V. C. Hurley, now of Atlanta, but originally from Hall county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. A. M. Pierce, pastor of the Methodist church at this place. The wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. John H. Moore a brother to the bride. We extend to the happy couple our best wishes for their future prosperity and happiness.

Presiding Elder Pierce came in to assist his brother in the religious services being held at the Methodist church until after the Quarterly meeting, next Saturday, and on Sunday night, we expect these religious services, which have been going on for many days will close, as the preacher and attendants are getting tired out. If those not already having it can't get religion in three weeks it looks like a slim chance for them. The pastor is a good preacher and an earnest worker and is doing everything in his power to cause everybody here to get religion and keep it.

The Baptists have decided to have a protracted meeting in progress during court week, thinking that it will be largely attended by country people having business here then. It may be that they will but not many have heretofore. This reminds us of an incident occurring here a few years ago. Two countrymen while working on the Cane Creek ditch decided that they would attend services at the Methodist church one night and went in and took their seats on a back bench, being content and wearing the same suits they worked in. It was the first time they had been to church in town and every thing most was new and interesting to them. When the preacher got in a good way he yelled at the top of his voice: "The devil's here! I see him! He is in the back end of the house! Let us surround and arrest him!" And the two men thinking that he meant them got up and ran out at the door. Rev. J. N. Austin was the preacher.

Mining Notes.

Mr. Stegall is still doing development work on his property near Auraria with bright prospects.

The clean up by Choctaw Davis last week was as good as the one previous, being worth about twenty-two dollars per ton, coming off of the lvey.

The stockholders of the Standard Co. were notified to attend an important meeting of this company to be held at Toledo, Ohio, on the 23rd inst.

Roberts and Chester are going to make big money at the Gordon now. They are going to turn the creek at a place which will give them a chance to work its bed including the old Barlow dam, for a quarter of a mile.

Thirty stamps are being run most of the time at the Hand with good results. Ten of these run in connection with Mr. Breyman's amalgamator. From the very beginning the inventor had the utmost confidence in his gold savor, who has worked patiently in regulating the little deficiencies until he is ready now to pronounce it good.

The mine Lot 810 has operated more regularly this winter than any other mine in the county. It kept moving along during the coldest days, with a few days exceptions, while the others had to stop on account of some of the machinery failing to work. This mine has but very little of that, rendering the operator able to go forward without any trouble.

There being four thousand acres of land belonging to the Cavenader's Creek property it will require more than one stamp mill to handle the ore. It will not be long now until they commence the erection of two of them, or time enough to have them ready by the time the water power is. The water power is at the upper end of the property and it will require a nine miles canal to get it to the desired place. It may be that electrical power will be used. That is if it is found to be the cheapest.

For the annual meeting of the Consolidated Co., which comes off in a few weeks Mr. Bainbridge, its secretary, makes this announcement: "We expect to make a statement to its stockholders at its annual meeting about 5 weeks hence of the developments based on facts and figures of what has been accomplished. Capt. Breyman's gold saving machine is running (continuously with the other devices) and apparently with his expected satisfactory results, which can be proven accurately only by another months continuous run, and the United States mint returns received therefore; report of which we expect to present to the stockholders at their annual meeting."

Although the frequent breaking of the Crown Mountain pump and the unusual disagreeable weather we have had here this winter for mining work, considerably retarding the progress of the operations at this mine, work has advanced far enough into the mountain to satisfy its managers that this celebrated mine fully comes up to the expectations of its first promoters, really better, for the clean up a few days ago was far ahead of what the managers expected, which is very encouraging to all concerned. Crown Mountain is bound to be a success when the pump gets to running regularly. There can be no doubt about this for a wheel can be put in that will stand. The pump is a success. The water has been put on the mountain, and the mine will pay, as this has been thoroughly demonstrated by work having been done on the Preacher lot, one of the combinations, which produced gold handsomely. The bodies of hard ore are proving to be much larger than was claimed by the original promoters, as shown by assays made by F. P. Catchings, the chemist for the company, last week. This statement was made by Gen. Warner, its president, to a gentleman last Friday.

What He Was There For.

There is at least one court in the world, an English midland assizes, the Judge of which is not a raid to say that black is black. The Birmingham Post gives the following glimpse of his method of dealing out justice:

A respectable looking man was in the court in the autumn session. The charge was theft. The aggregate value involved was considerable, and the plea was guilty, but it was alleged that there were extenuating circumstances. The defense introduced a medical expert to testify for the prisoner. He said that the self confessed thief had kleptomania.

"What's that?" asked the judge gravely.

"Er—it's—er—a disease, my lord," said the astonished expert.

"What kind of a disease?" asked the judge.

"Well, it's—er—a mental disease that causes the subject to appropriate property not his own, stammered the physician.

"Makes him steal?" asked the judge.

"Yes, my lord, that is generally the effect."

"I know the disease," said his honor, a grim smile in his eyes. "I know the disease, and I am sent here to cure it."

The editor of the Greenfield, Ind., Globe, in an article on newspaper editing, says: "In contents, plating my first paper, I firmly resolved to reform the whole world. At the end of one month I thought that the state was large enough for my first field; at the end of the second I concluded to fix the county as I wanted, and at the end of the third month I decided that would first reform the town. Since that time I have learned that if I wanted to reform myself I would have a pretty large job of it."

The following from the Cleburn (Tex.) Review is a sample of the marriage notices gotten up in that state: Married—At the residence of the bride's father on the north west corner of Askin and Windham streets, facing Lawney Park, being the only three-story pressed brick house in the block, James T. Spooner, Jr., eldest and only son of Dr. James T. Spooner, discoverer of Spooner's Cough Killer, price 25 cents per bottle, for sale by all druggists—to Cordelia Frances, youngest and only daughter of J. Mortine Brown, Esq., who glories in the best law practice in these parts.

The United States have in the last five years enjoyed such wonderful prosperity that it finds no parallel in the record of any other people. In a period measurable by months and days we have marched forward into the foremost ranks of commercial nations, and also at a single bound have taken our rightful and acknowledged place as one of the powers, with whom in the international questions other great peoples must consult, remarks the New York Tribune.

Bill Nye once said: "Do not attempt to cheat an editor out of a year's subscription to his paper, or any other sum. Cheat the minister, cheat any and everybody, but if you have any regard for future consequences, don't you fool the editor. You will be put up for office some time, or want some public favor for yourself or your friends, and when your luck is a thing of beauty, a joy forever, the editor will open on you and knock your castles into a cocked hat at the first fire. He will subdue you and you'll cuss your stupidity for a driving idiot, and go hire some man to knock you down and kick you for talking in a'."

A Nebraska editor apologized to his readers for the lack of news as follows: We expected to have a marriage and a death notice this week but a violent storm prevented the wedding and the doctor being sick himself the patient recovered and we are accordingly cheated out of both items.

According to an exchange the best graduating course a girl can take after receiving a common school education, is a thorough course in roasting, boiling, stibology, dermatology pathology and general domesticology.

"What do you think the weather will be next month?" Wrote a subscriber to an editor, and the editor replied, "I think it will be very much like your subscriber's opinion." The subscriber happened to think of the word "unsettled" and sent in the amount next day.

Postmaster Palmer

of So. Glen Falls, N. Y., describes a condition which thousands of men and women find identical with theirs. Read what he says, and note the similarity of your own case. Write to him, enclosing stamped addressed envelope for reply, and get a personal corroboration of what is here given. He says regarding Dr. Miles' Heart Cure:

"I suffered agonizing pains in the left breast and between my shoulders from heart trouble. My heart would palpitate, flutter, then skip beats and I would not know what was the matter. I walked the floor, for by the dawn would have meant sudden death. My condition seemed almost hopeless when I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, but it helped me in a few days. I took Dr. Miles' Nerve with the Heart Cure and the effect was astonishing. I earnestly implore similar sufferers to give these remedies a trial."

To run a newspaper without occasionally publishing an item that is untrue or offensive, is like running a railroad without having smash-ups or accidents. It can't be done. No one in the world is so likely to be imposed upon as the editor of a newspaper. Pushed with work constantly—day and night—he must rely, to a great measure, upon second or third parties for information as to the events that transpire during the week. Frequently, statements are received from good reliable citizens but subsequently discovered after having gone through many mouths, to be without foundation in fact. If, therefore, you find yourself aggrieved by a statement in your home paper, keep this in mind: Don't "flop off the handle," but go to the editor for a correction, and take our word for it, in nine cases out of ten, if your case is just, you will be received like a gentleman and the correction made with pleasure.—Selected.

Seven miles west of Connellsville, Pa., a portion of an Indian mound has been uncovered and innumerable interesting relics have been found. A baby's remains had a necklace of beads made out of curiously wrought deer horns. Strangely shaped pipes, many arrow heads, sandstone wheels, are supposed to have been used by the aborigines for the making of stone implements; marine shells and many other trinkets were also found.
